PIONEER PHYSICIAN AT RYE SUCCUMBS--FUNERAL WEDNESDAY

Special to The Chieftain.

Rye, March 16.—Dr. R. S. Littrell, one of the oldest settlers and perhaps the most widely-known physician in this section of the state, died here tonight at 7 o'clock of stomach trouble.

Dr. Littrell had lived in this vicinity for over thirty-four years and had a large practice here. His loss will be greatly felt in the community. He is survived by five children.

The funeral services will be held Wednesday afternoon.
