Funeral Notices.

The funeral of John Morien will be held from Davis & Vories' chapel at 10 o'clock this morning. Interment will be at the City cemetery.

No arrangements have as yet been made for the funeral of Charles Styles the railroad man killed in the wreck at La Veta. His father-in-law arrived in the city from the east last night. Other relatives are expected today. The remains are at McMahon and Collier's parlors.

The funeral of George Markovitz will be held from the chapel of McMahon and Collier's mortuary at 3 o'clock this afternoon. Interment will be at Roselawn.

The body of C. E. Kahler, the engineer killed in the wreck at La Veta, was sent to Texahoma, Oklahoma, last night from McMahon & Collier's parlors. The remains were accompanied by George C. Denman, a brother railroad man.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary Herron will take place from the residence of her daughter, Mrs. A. J. Langdon, at the corner of Ninth and Greenwood Services will be held at St. Ignatius Services will be held at Stfi Ignatius church at 9 o'clock. Requiem high mass will be celebrated by the Rev. Father Welch. Interment will be in the family plot at Roselawn.