

DEATHS AND FUNERALS

The funeral of Mrs. Elizabeth Magill will take place this morning at 8:30 from the family residence, 42 Block X, and at 2 o'clock from St. Patrick's church. Rev. Father Schimpf will say mass for the dead. The interment will be in the family burial plot at Roselawn cemetery in charge of T. G. McCarthy.

The funeral of Thomas Robertson took place yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the McCarthy funeral chapel. The Rev. F. W. Imboden assisted by Rev. Mr. Holmes, conducted the services at the chapel. Wm. Mray, accompanied by Mrs. W. B. McMinn, sang "Nearer My God to Thee" and "Abide With Me." The pall bearers were members of the Red Men and Eagles. F. W. Bradley and George Babcock of the Red Men, John Nelson, George Sufficool, Max Greenstein and Ernest Sisk of the Eagles. The services at the grave were conducted by the F. O. Eagles, Pueblo Aerial No. 145. The burial was in the family burial plot at Roselawn cemetery.

The funeral of Mrs. Eliza Spurgeon who died January 13 in Phoenix, Ariz., was held yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the family residence, 42 Block X, and at 2 o'clock from St. Patrick's church. Rev. Father Schimpf will say mass for the dead. The interment will be in the family burial plot at Roselawn cemetery in charge of T. G. McCarthy.

her for her kind acts in time of need to tenderly cherish her sweet memory. The pall bearers were E. F. Ford, Sam Trent, Geo. D. Meston, J. K. P. Magill, T. H. Bullin and Dr. G. E. Gray. The flower bearers were Mrs. Ford, Mrs. Wilder and Mrs. Lemon. The casket and altar stand was completely banked with beautiful floral pieces testifying to the thoughtfulness of numerous friends made by the departed woman while a resident in Pueblo. Interment was made in the family lot at Mountainview cemetery.

Ottis S. Bland, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Bland died at the family residence, 601 east B street Sunday evening. The funeral was held yesterday morning at 10 o'clock from the residence. Interment was in Mountainview in charge of the United Undertaking company.

Davis & Vories, undertakers, embalmers. Eighth and Main. Phone Main 185; residence phone Main 185. Private ambulance.

T. G. McCarthy, undertaking and embalmer, McCarthy block. Private automobile ambulance service. Office telephone M. 169. Residence M. 400.

Whitton Mortuary association, undertakers; ambulance service. Board of Trade building. Phone 179; residence phone 179.