

ed of pulling
from the head
hom she had
l weeks. Her
Mrs. Carrow
wife proceeded
bag. Kruk was
his wife suc-
escape. State
Kruk was ar-
before Justice
be arraigned
charge of as-

were Daniel
k and Philip.

— springs

was in Colo-
a guest at the
he delivered
r services last
Corwin talked
tations of the
the fact that
various pas-
at things and is the second
year that Dr.
idents at Colo-

Davis & Vories' chapel. The Rev. J.
A. Jeffries conducted the services. Interment at Roselawn.

The remains of the late Nathan W.
Lundry, who died suddenly at his home in this city, will be forwarded by Davis & Vories this morning at 8
a. m. to Marshalltown, Iowa.

The funeral of Samuel Hadley Rule, pioneer stockman of southern Colorado, was held at 2 p. m. yesterday from the Davis & Vories chapel. It was largely attended by the Southern Colorado Pioneers and stockmen. The Rev.
W. C. Galceran of the First M. E. church, South, paid a glowing tribute to the deceased. Mr. and Mrs. W. L.
Byrd, W. Young and Sergius McKinley sang "God Be With You Till We Meet Again." The pallbearers were Judge R. A. Crossman, W. F. Reed, L. R.
Dunn, C. H. Carlton, W. M. Hamlin and M. M. Carney. Interment was in the family plot at Mountainview.

The funeral of Sylvia Goodman who died at La Junta was held yesterday morning upon the arrival of the body in the city. Interment was in the North Side Jewish cemetery in charge of the Whiton Mortuary association.

own 607-2a
week and
street.

CARD F
Royal Hig
party and Fellows h
and Grand
vited to at

Davis &
balmer,
Main 185,
Private ar

United
to McMah
and emba
'phone 226;
vats ambu

T. G. Mc
balmer, M
tomobile.
telephone

Whiton
dertakers;
of Trade
dence 'ph

57, one of the Auto company,
afternoon at
st Ninth street.
He was well
circles of the
sent to his old
In this mean

