Work Lodging

l man who hapndition in which
n caught—broke
the storm last
ays on the rock
e jestingly re-
ld furnish him
ee to work that
ity.
your life, will I
ays for the city
anything," said
whose brogue
rom a thousand
way. I am a ave always had
v I haven't got to the old coun-ay and I've got
oming, but this
aid in applying er night. After wit a good try-
was accommo-
early all Irish

for Investigation

Mr and Mrs E. C. Montgomery, 225 east Fourth street, who recently figured in the limelight when the husband refused to allow another man to talk him out of his wife, are being held by the police on investigation. They were arrested Saturday night on suspicion with being responsible for the loss of $12 in money and a $100 draft from John Johnson, a roomer in the same building. The draft was later recovered, but the police state that the suspects secured the $12. Chief McDermott secured damaging statements from the couple yesterday, which, it is said, implicate them with the alleged larceny.

Funeral Notices

The funeral of Mrs. Mary Self will be held this afternoon at 2:30 from McCarthy's chapel. Interment will be made in the family lot in Mountainview.

The funeral of Jesse H. Marshall was held yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the family residence near Rye. Interment was in the family lot in Brookside cemetery.

The funeral of John Ward will be held Tuesday morning at 8:30 o'clock from McCarthy's chapel and at 9 o'clock from St. Ignatius church. The deceased is survived by four sisters, Mrs. Katie Carr of this city, Mrs. James O'Reilly of Seattle, Wash., Miss Ella Ward of Leadville and Miss Maggie Ward of Ireland.

or manner the Japanese have their meals serv heaped on an extra order trusting to the enormity make up for other shortc

TRIBUTE TO FORMER GOVERNOR J.

The Denver office of t Smelting and Refining made public the followi
from Mr Daniel Gugge
dent and chairman of directors of the company:

"The board of directors ican Smelting and Refin have been greatly shock tressed by the news of their distinguished assoc James B. Grant. During
years of the intimate soc ness relationship that has their joint services on t directors and the executi
of the company, they hav increasing confidence in ness judgment, and adde for his high executive a skill, and for his high p acter. The board feels tha dous loss which the com in the death of ex-Gover shared by the people of C whose interests he has al closely identified, not alo dustrial advancement of also in those directions made for the betterment interests of the people."

FOR SACRED
HE—KNIGHTS
L—NOV. 22,