ht there should be a
for the benefit of the
ich it is being given.
night came from the
ere first opened until
the building was
ight, many of the
aging to get in for
the clock announced
stop festivities had

ich the fair is being tractively decorated
d pennants, while all
booths trimmed in
presided over by
maidens offer their
the buyers who at-

booths at the fair
led by the different
city, one by the St.
another by the St.
and the third by the
arish. These booths
beautiful and useful
and are making a
y for the orphans.
the booths there is a
ere one can buy all
ngs to eat. The art the county store
k of flour down to a
several people are
a good supply of
coming month from
store.
and the booths al-
there are booths for
where sandwiches

The dancing is the main diversion for the large number of patrons and while Prof. Mark McDonnell and his orchestra of artists furnish the music, scores of young folks dance and enjoy themselves immensely.

The fair will continue for seven nights and will be open every evening at 7 o'clock.

Pueblo County Pioneer Dies

Many residents of Pueblo county are grieved at the news of the death of Jeff H. Marshall of Rye, who passed away at his home late Friday. A resident of this section of the state since 1873, Mr. Marshall was well known to hundreds of the oldest pioneers. He was always unassuming and charitable and a benefactor in no small way in the district in which he resided.

Born March 28, 1838, in Start county, Ohio, Mr. Marshall had an eventful life until coming to Colorado. He served three years with the Sixth Kansas cavalry, and came to Pueblo county in 1873, locating on the Greenhorn river, where he resided continuously until his demise. As a stock raiser and successful agriculturist he was well known. He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Charles B. Hughes and Mrs. George W. Ray of Pueblo. The funeral will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the family home at Rye

the present time, b
court which will p
Gray must deposi
money to meet the
judged to be owed
case has been de id

COLUMBINE CL
club held their regu
day afternoon at t
E. Rankin, 824 Ce
afternoon was spe
which dainty r
served. Mrs. Carr
were the prize mini
were Mrs. J. Welt
Sight, Mrs. Goodin
Mrs. Jamason, Mr
nings, Mrs. Bischo
Mrs. Carr, Mrs. M
Rankin.

OFF FOR DENV
of teachers are ta
the low round trip
is being made by t
Grande railroad d
week. The rate i
coaches are added
that the teachers
care of. A large n
to go up today and
the last part of th

TIME TO FIL
Ward, the Pueblo
who was recently f
ing stolen cattle
Cattle company, w
an additional ten d