Mrs. Rose Jamieson, 43, formerly of Pueblo, died yesterday morning in Denver. The funeral will be held in Denver tomorrow morning. Mrs. Jamieson moved from east Ninth street, Pueblo, to Denver two years ago. She is survived by two children, Ruth, 12, and Robert, 11; her mother, Mrs. Ruth Redmond, a brother, Henry J. Redmond, all of Denver, and another brother who resides in Utah. She resided with her mother in Denver at 941 east Seventeenth avenue.

The body of the late David Meredith was sent to Wilkes-Barre, Pa., by Davis & Vorles. The body was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Evans. Mrs. Evans is a daughter of the deceased.

The funeral of the late Robert L. Marshall will be held this morning from the Central Christian church at 10 o'clock. Burial will be in Rose-lawn in charge of Davis & Vorles.

Gustaf Johnson, 61 years old, died at the family residence, 615 east Routt avenue last evening after a brief illness. He had been in poor health for several weeks but only recently became confined to his bed. Johnson and his family came to Pueblo five years ago from Leadville, thinking that the lower altitude would benefit him. He was a member of the Swedish Foresters. He is survived by Mrs. Julia Johnson, one daughter, Mabel, and a son, Herbert. The body is at Davis & Vorles. Funeral announcement later.
