

NEWS OF THE DAY

LOCAL.

Forecast—Colorado: Showers Monday; cooler in east portion. Tuesday, fair, warmer.

The maximum temperature yesterday was 89 degrees.

Counting today, there are but eight days until the opening of the State Fair.

Typhoid fever cases are increasing in Bessemer.

Work on tinplate mills at the steel works is being pushed rapidly.

Labor day will be celebrated in Pueblo in a style never before attempted.

Denver aggregation is easily defeated by C. F. & I. team by a score of 10 to 1.

Great electrical effects are secured for decoration of downtown streets during the State Fair.

Two negroes are under arrest who are thought to be guilty of Goldberg robbery some time ago.

Eleven-year-old boy from Canon City tells sad story to police. He is wanted for stealing $75 from a house.

Horticultural exhibits at the State Fair promise to be finest ever seen in the state.

Funeral of Matt Kozjan, who killed himself Wednesday, was held yesterday.

Comparison of number of arrests in 1902 and 1903 is made by Police Magistrate Druley.

Two Italians quarrel and one is seriously stabbed.

Police are asked to search for Earl C. Price, a Denver school teacher, who has been missing since Friday last.

Two girls who ran away from their homes in Danver and came to Pueblo were returned yesterday by the police.

STATE.