

Angelus CHAPEL
FUNERAL DIRECTORS, INC.
1102 East Evans
Pueblo • (719) 544-4388
2535 Airport Rd.
Colorado Springs • (719) 391-1818
www.angeluschapels.com

Richard E. Martinez, 51,

passed away unexpectedly on July 2, 2011. He was born Feb. 12, 1960, in Salida, Colo., to the union of Frank and Loretta Martinez. He was preceded in death by his father, Frank, and a brother, Daniel "Boone" Martinez. Richard was an electrician for District 60 and before that the Colorado State Fair for many years. He is survived by his mother and stepfather, Loretta (Carlos) Bustillos; stepmother, Becky Martinez; his loving wife, Ramona Barela; his children, Renee Martinez and Richelle Martinez; siblings, Frank Martinez, Ronald (Debbie) Martinez, Evelyn (Dave) Alexander, Geri (John) Gonzales, Charles Bustillos, John (Yo) Bustillos and Lori Duren; in-laws, Kathy (Toby) Arellano, Michael (Sue) Barela and Tom Cortinas; four grandchildren, one great-grandchild; several nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends. Rosary vigil, 7 p.m. Tuesday and funeral service, 10 a.m. Wednesday; both at Holy Family Catholic Church with Father Tomas Carvajal as celebrant. Interment, Imperial Memorial Gardens.

Brittany Dee Pino, 25,

passed away unexpectedly July 6,

Ron Fa
Funera

110 Cleveland • 5
615 Russell Ave. • 73
Alamosa • Monte Vista

Anthony

Lamas, in he with the 30, 2011. H by his par and Maria lings. Mat Krystyna ery Lamas zie Lamas, Alexandre Lamas an Talbert; a aunts, unc family and vice has ta ceded, in parents, Jo trice Truj by his ch and Mick children, grandchild Gilbert (Sam), D neth), D Robert numerous and neph to 3 p.m. lowed by vice, 3 p both at R Friends a be receiv Courtesy the serv honors b Veterans Interme Wednesd National C

Alfred "Uncle"

Joe A. V

Pueblo w the Lord He was death by Claude