Pioneer Dies of Apoplexy at Six Last Night

W. E. Marvin, a resident of Pueblo for forty-two years and one of the oldest pioneers in this section of the state died from apoplexy last night at 6 o'clock at the home of his son, Dr. L. B. Marvin, 205 Michigan avenue. Mr. Marvin was 73 years old.

Besides Dr. Marvin, Mr. Marvin is survived by his wife, Annie E., and one other son, C. J. Marvin of Glenwood Springs. The body will be buried here although no funeral arrangements have been made.

Mr. Marvin was born in Salina County, Missouri, and came to Pueblo when about 30 years old. He opened the first drug store in this city and until a few years ago was in active business.

He belonged to no lodges but had a wide circle of friends here.
