these suits in Pueblo. New fabrics, new styles, well made and handsomely finished garments.

THE INQUEST SET FOR TODAY.

Cause of Martin McAloon's Death Will Be Inquired Into.

The crew of the Union Pacific freight train which ran over and killed Martin McAloon in the yards Thursday night did not return from Denver till last evening and the inquest was put off till this morning at 9 o'clock. The trainmen say they knew nothing of the accident until advised by telegraph of its occurrence.

The remains of the unfortunate man will be shipped to Denver at 1:30 today for interment.

Messrs. Abe Siegel and S. Bernheim have kindly consented to help out the