For sale by Baldwin Drug Co., 203 N. Main street.

Buy your suit at Nathan's.

OBITUARY.

WILLIAM McCLELLAND.

Another Pueblo pioneer has passed away. William McClelland died at the family home, 608 east Tenth street last night after an illness of several months. He was born in Missouri and came to southern Colorado in 1872. Before leaving his native state he was engaged in the cattle commission business in St. Louis and upon his arrival here engaged in sheep and cattle ranching, making his headquarters on the Huerfano. At the time of his death he was 68 years of age and leaves a son, William J. McClelland and a daughter Miss Mary McClelland. Funeral announcement will be made later.

IS IT MALARIA OR ALUM?