Charges Made by Grand Jury

The indictments detailed by the grand jury against ex-Alderman Frank Vance both name bribery as the charge. In the first he is accused of asking and receiving $25 from George V. Meserole for his vote as member of the finance committee when a bill of $950 due Meserole by the city was to come up for action. Mr. Meserole himself is named on the true bill as witness for the state. In the second indictment he is accused of accepting $74.85 from Smith T. Benedict, suspended officer of the police force, if he would use his influence to restore him to his position as policeman. Benedict is the witness for the state against the man to whom he is said to have offered the influence money.

The indictment against George Mayer, secretary of the Pueblo Water Supply and Power company, is for offering a bribe. It is based on the testimony of Alderman J. K. Sweeney, one of the board of trustees of the north side waterworks, that Mayer offered him stock in the company to the extent of 10,000 shares for his vote as a member of the board of trustees. The par value of the 10,000 shares is $10,000.

Contractors Sue

The funeral of Dana N. McCord took place yesterday forenoon from the family residence, 820 east Third street. Regardless of the inclement weather of the hour a large number of his friends and acquaintances attended the funeral services, which were conducted by Revs. D. G. Monfort and M. H. MacLeod, and then took their places in the procession that followed the remains to Mountainview cemetery for interment. Many handsome floral tributes spoke the esteem in which the deceased was held.

Mr. McCord's death was due to appendicitis. He was in the thirty-second year of his age. He leaves a widow and one infant child. For several years past he had been in the employ of the Prudential Life Insurance company, and at the time of his death was one of the assistant superintendents of the local office of that company. The pall bearers at the funeral were selected from the officers of the Fountain Presbyterian church of which he was a member and officeholder. They were C. H. Coogle, O. E. Coogle, E. R. Storer, W. Telephone Company in Litigation.

By Associated Press.

Nashville, Tenn., May 2.—After ordering that the Cumberland Telephone company be placed in the hands of a receiver and ousted from the state, Chancellor Allison later amended his decision, saying that for satisfactory reasons he would decline to appoint a receiver. The reason actuating the chancellor's change are that the company is a Kentucky corporation, and therefore if proceeded against outside that state suit must be brought in the federal courts. The present suit was brought through the state of Tennessee by relation and at the instance of the Independent Telephone company of Columbia, Ky. Its object was to have declared a forfeiture of the charter of the defendant company upon allegations that the latter had violated statutes in attempting to suppress competition. The telephone company entered an appeal to the supreme court on the ouster proceedings. This stays the order of expulsion.

The company, which had an authorized capital of $20,000,000, controls the telephone situation in the south by reason of its relation to the Bell Telephone company, and has line radiating into southern Illinois and Indiana.

The action grows out of an effort on the part of the state by relation and at the instance of an independent telephone company at Columbia, Tenn., to declare a forfeiture of the charter of the defendant company upon the ground that it has violated the statutes in its attempts to suppress competition.

Later in the day Chancellor Allison amended his decree stating that for satisfactory reasons he would decline to appoint the receiver.

The telephone company entered an appeal to the next term of the supreme court. This appeal vacates the order of expulsion.

CURED HIS MOTHER OF RHEUMATISM.

"My mother has been a sufferer for many years with rheumatism," says W. H. Howard of Husband, Pa. "At times she was unable to move at all, while at all times walking was painful. I presented her with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and after a few applications she decided it was the most wonderful pain reliever she had ever tried, in fact, she is never without it now and is at all times able to walk. An occasional application of Pain Balm keeps away the pain that she was formerly troubled with." For sale by all druggists.
