NECESSARY TO ESTABLISH FOUR NIGHT COURT

By Associated Press.

New York, Aug. 1.—There is so much crime in New York after dark that it probably will be necessary to establish four night courts. Instead of the one which is to be formally opened in Jefferson Market at 8 o'clock this evening. The suggestion was made at a meeting of the board of magistrates yesterday after it had been stated that every prisoner arrested between 4 o'clock in the afternoon and 2 in the morning, in the entire 42 precincts of Manhattan would have to be arraigned in the one court and in the first seven days of court in July
