shipped this morning by [illegible] Walsenburg, accompanied by the father and mother.

M'DONALD—Mrs. Mary, wife of A. J. McDonald, died at the family residence at 10 o'clock last night. She was 78 years of age and had resided in this city with her husband since November 29, 1881. The remains were removed from the family residence, 1100 Topaz avenue to the McCarthy undertaking parlors where they will be held until funeral arrangements are announced.

United Undertaking Co. successors