

CORNER FOURTH AND MAIN.

S. Warden,
ce Murray,
ararar and
s of the W.
lawn in the ction of the
where the
e W. O. W.

B. Swear-
is afternoon
lly residence
Hilton, pas-
tian church
The burial
at Roselawn
Carthy. Fun-

rtha A. Milterday from star street.
ted the service. The house and yard were filled with sorrowing friends. The casket was banked high with beautiful floral offerings. Delegations from Amalgamated Association of Steel and Electric railroad Employees of America and the Knights and Ladies of Security were in attendance. Mrs. Motherway and Miss Motherway assisted by Mrs. W. L. Byrd sang, "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere," and "Jesus Savior Pilot Me." The pallbearers: W. F. McCafferty, Byrnes, E. R. Glover, W. Beal, C. V. Righ and Watts Morgan. The flower-bearers were: Octova Cook, Leota Cook, Blanch Southward, Nellie Cavanaugh, Mabel Wilin, Ester Vanforken. The burial was in Roselawn in charge of Davis-Vories.

The funeral of Carrie McDowell will take place at 10 a. m. today from Davis-Vories chapel. Burial at Mt. View.

Recre

Trinidad, reservists a
tonight for
ant Matran
in Las Anir
in the conti

ALLEN'S

When your
and bunions
all over, s
standard
years, and
It will take bunions and Achling. Sv
everywhere
stitute.