Frank M. Hall and his untamed lion, "Wallace," will furnish the thrills for the week. This performance is one of the most startling and entertaining that has been put on the stage, and the patrons of the Earl will enjoy the act immensely.

Marvelous Henman will do some especially interesting feats on a bicycle, in trick and fancy riding. The rider appear.

"What Happened to Brown" is a clever sketch which will be presented during the week by Thomas R. Curtis, Ella Wilson and company. The sketch is full of life and funny situations.

The illustrated song by Mr. Prince will be one of the late hits and the moving pictures of Edison's will be up to the remarkably high standard that has been maintained.

Former Officer Passes Away

James Middleton, 1129 Cypress street, a police officer during the Brown administration and a well-known resident of the south side, died at his home yesterday at the age of 47 years. He had been a resident of Pueblo for twenty-five consecutive years and was one of the earliest pioneers of Bessemer. He is survived by a wife and four children, two sons and two daughters. The children are Charles and William Middleton, Mrs. Thomas Harris and Mrs. Frank Morrow. The remains are at the parlors of McMahon & Collier and the funeral will be held from the residence Tuesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. Interment will be in Roselawn.

T. M. A.'s Elect

At the last regular meeting of the T. M. A.s' the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, D. H. Cordier; vice president, Sol Jacobs; secretary, B.C. Hummel; treasurer, P. L. Hubersberger; marshal, Bert Whaley; sergeant-at-arms, John Carroll; trustees: G. M. Morris, E. D. Scott and William Hart; physician, Dr. E. A. Elder.

This order is strictly a theatrical organization and promotes fellowship among members of that profession. Pueblo lodge No. 70, is one year old Christmas day and will celebrate the event by giving a Christmas tree and supper for themselves and such traveling theatrical people who may be in the city on that date.
