portant thing but it is a monumental battle each year to fund education." Schoettler and the specter of losing what little commercial air transportation the San Luis Valley has.

cepted but similar subsidizies aren't acceptable for trains or airlines.

Fort Collins man dies in hunting accident

By ERIN SMITH
The Pueblo Chieftain

DEL NORTE — A Fort Collins man died about 7 a.m. Wednesday of gunshot wounds incurred in a hunting accident about 10 miles southwest of here.

The accident took place in an area called Little Wolf near Del Norte Peak.

Rio Grande County Undersheriff Brian Norton said Kevin Blunt, 24, was with two hunting partners when the accidental shooting occurred Tuesday evening.

Blunt was airlifted to St. Francis Hospital in Colorado Springs with head and chest wounds from a "high-caliber velocity" weapon, and possibly from shrapnel.

Norton said Blunt and his hunting partner had been on horseback, but the co-worker was not near the site where the shooting occurred.

Blunt was found by Earl Wilkerson of Pueblo, Norton added.

The CBI has been called in because of the nature of the investigation.

No one is being held in connection with the death."It is deer and elk season in Colorado and there are 300 hunters on that mountain," Norton said.

POLICE BLOTTER

PUEBLO