

PUEBLO CITY-COUNTY LIBRARY DISTRICT PRESENTS

OUTSTANDING Women AWARDS

Pueblo City-County Library District is now accepting nominations for the woman you want to honor. These awards have honored women who have made important contributions to our community and have celebrated the important role that women have played in Pueblo's history. These awards provide an opportunity for any individual or organization to honor a special woman who has made an impact. The only criteria is that the woman must be a resident of Pueblo County currently or during the time the award honors. The person does not have to be living to be honored.

NOMINATIONS MUST BE RECEIVED BY 5 p.m. ON FRIDAY, FEB. 12.

Nomination form is on the back of this page, is available at PCCLD libraries and online at pueblolibrary.org/outstandingwomen.

New this year, each nominee will receive a printed and digital copy of a professional portrait of themselves to use in the award program. All nominees will be recognized and presented with an "Outstanding Woman of 2021" hand-made ceramic art piece by artist Kate Fox.

With careful consideration, we will host the 2021 Outstanding Women Awards as a virtual event. It will be recorded and available for viewing online. In order to practice proper social distancing, there will be three recording sessions.

Auxiliary aides and interpreter services are available, with a one-week notice, to individuals with disabilities by calling 553-0227.

Outstanding Women Award Guidelines

1. The woman must be a resident of Pueblo County either now or during the time the award honors.
2. Nominations must be sponsored by a Pueblo organization, club, association, individual, etc.
3. The nominating organization is responsible for preparing a brief biographical sketch of 150 words describing the woman's accomplishments. The nomination form and bio will be added to the Robert Hoag Rawlings Library's Western Research Room, and a brief summary will be included in the program that will be distributed at the virtual recording. Please complete as much information on the nomination form as possible. Past recipients will not receive a second award.
4. A representative of the nominating organization will present the award virtually.
5. The nominating organization will pay $50 total for the award. Checks must be made payable to the Pueblo Library Foundation or via online payment at www.pueblolibrary.org/outstandingwomen.
6. PCCLD will not judge the nominations. The person you choose to honor will be honored.
7. Nominations must be received by Friday, Feb. 12 at 5 p.m. The nominations may mailed or delivered to Rawlings Library, Attn: Sara Schwartz, 100 E. Abriendo Ave., Pueblo, Colo., 81004. They may also be emailed to sara.schwartz@pueblolibrary.org.

An online nomination form is available at www.pueblolibrary.org/outstandingwomen.
