ALL PUEBLO READS

PROGRAM GUIDE

2021

NEA Big Read is a program of the National Endowment for the Arts in partnership with Arts Midwest.

FEATURED BOOKS

THE PROJECT

All Pueblo Reads is a literary project designed to get everyone in Pueblo County reading and discussing one book at the same time. Each year, this community-wide literary project serves the community with incredible results; reaching more than 38,000 individuals in 2019.

About the book

The Things They Carried is a fictionalized account of a U.S. Army platoon fighting on the ground during the Vietnam War. The collection of linked short stories is based on O'Brien's own combat experience during the war. The Things They Carried was a finalist for both the Pulitzer Prize and the National Book Critics Circle Award. This year marks the 30th anniversary of the book's publishing.

About Tim O'Brien

He was born in 1946 in Austin, Minn., and spent most of his youth in the small town of Worthington, Minn. He graduated summa cum laude from Macalester College in 1968. From February 1969 to March 1970 he served as infantryman with the U.S. Army in Vietnam.

After his discharge from the army, O'Brien pursued graduate studies at Harvard University. He worked as a national affairs reporter for The Washington Post from 1973 to 1974.

O'Brien currently is professor of creative writing at Texas State University.

Companion book for younger readers

What Was the Vietnam War by Jim O'Connor is the companion book for younger readers in grades 3 through 7. What Was the Vietnam War is a part of the Who Was series of books that explains for younger readers the myriad events surrounding the Vietnam War and the United States involvement in it.

ABOUT THIS YEAR'S PROJECT

As with most events this year, the NEA Big Read All Pueblo Reads will look different from years past. This year, the library is focusing on developing online learning modules for students from elementary school through adult, and pairing learning opportunities with virtual author visits, and library and community programming. On October 14 and 15, author Jim O'Conner will present to students in Pueblo School District 60 and Pueblo County School District 70 about his book What Was The Vietnam War? On November 5 and 6, Tim O'Brien, author of The Things They Carried, will present to CSU-Pueblo and Pueblo Community College students and the greater Pueblo community. Tim O'Brien will also be the guest speaker at the virtual Booklovers Ball, a fundraiser supporting the Pueblo Library Foundation.

Tết Trung Thu or Vietnam Mid Autumn Festival

While the Mid-autumn Festival is celebrated in many Asian countries, the Vietnamese version has its own traditions and legends. The best-known tale is about a man named Cuội who hung on to a magical banyan tree as it floated up to the moon.

During the festival, children parade lanterns in the streets the night of Mid Autumn Festival to help light the way to earth for Cuội from the moon.
