Dig into some fun!

Each summer, thousands of children read their way around Pueblo City-County Library District's Summer Reading Club game board. Kids earn prizes, a gold medal and free admission to Pueblo's most popular destinations. Tickets to the Pueblo Zoo, Buell Children's Museum, Ice Arena and HARP boat rides are just the beginning of free summer fun available to families that come to the library.

Top notch entertainers from around the state are performing throughout the summer — at no charge to those who attend. With eight weeks of morning, afternoon and evening programs at four locations, it's easy to fit several exciting performances into a busy summer schedule.
