Your library in 2017

Jon Walker

by Jon Walker

The Pueblo City-County Library District recently received the Library Journal's prestigious Star Library award.

This recognition places the local public library among the top three percent of all public libraries in the United States. It also affirms the dedication to planning, accountability, and service of those involved with the district in recent years plus strong support from the community. This work continues with the library's 2017 Annual Plan.

PCCLD's new strategic plan, which was developed and adopted in 2015 via a comprehensive and collaborative process involving library stakeholders, helps set the

Leadership Institute now accepting applications

Do you know a woman in grades 10-12 who wants to make a positive impact in Pueblo, learn about leadership and build their college resume?

Encourage them to apply to the 2017 Leadership Institute, a fundraiser for the Pueblo Library Foundation. This is a character-building program where participants learn about leadership, teamwork, volunteering and will be recognized publicly as the next generation of leaders and philanthropists in Pueblo.

The six-month institute culminates with Le Bal de Bibliotheque, a one-of-a-kind event where all participants will be publicly recognized for their accomplishments and presented to the community.

The 2016 Leadership Institute class listens to women leaders in the community.

Applications and program information is available online at pueblolibrary.org/leadershipinstitute. Applications are due Friday, Jan. 13, 2017. Contact Midori Clark at 719-562-5605 or email midori.clark@pueblolibrary.org for complete details.
