Monthly Exhibit: Thad's Threads Tie-Dye

Exhibit attendance: 291

Thad Stelter/Thad's Threads

Thad has been doing tie dye as a side project since the Summer of 2018. His love for the Grateful Dead led to a hobby that has been a fairly successful, online business. Prior to the COVID-19 pandemic, Thad sold his tie dye at various local events, most notably, the Beulah Arts and Crafts Festival. The Summer of 2021 will see a return to seller events. As of now, Thad's Threads will be at the Pueblo Arts and Crafts Festival, Pueblo Pride, and Idea Con. Thad's shop mascot is Winnie, a 9 year mini lop eared rabbit that comes from Winton, California. Check out his threads on Etsy at www.etsy.com/shop/thadsthreads

Long Sleeve T-Shirts: $25
Short Sleeve T-Shirts: $20
Tank Tops: $20

Please see a library staff member to purchase

We also shifted all our New Fiction and Nonfiction to the carousels to create more appealing monthly displays on the wall opposite the exhibit.

In addition, with the help of facilities, we added 3 slat walls to the end of the shelves in the adult area so that we can have a display on every end cap.

JENNIFER SULLIVAN (Librarian/Asst. Manager)

Book Bundles

I made three of these this month and two checked out:

1. The Memoir Graphic Novels bundle consisting of El Defo by Cece Bell, We'll Soon Be Home Again by Jessica Bab Bonde, Almost American Girl by Robin Ha and Drowned City by Don Brown.
2. Magical Adventure bundle consisting of Shadowshaper by Jose Older, Song of Wraith and Ruin by Roseanne A. Brown, Wayward Witch by Zoraida Córdova, and Serpent and Dove by Shelby Mahurin

I had one book out of the Stars among Stars book bundle check out and that was The End of Everything by Katie Mack the other books in the bundle were: The Human Cosmos, Path To The Stars, and Wonder Women: 25 innovators, Inventors, and Trailblazers who changed history.

Displays

Display for the month of June called "The Great Outdoors" went really well and we also advertised the Colorado State Park backpacks and passes. Here is the flyer I designed and the actual display.

Lovely's Digital Book Club

June's selection was Pigs by Johanna Stoberock. Community relations advertised and scheduled the livestream for the wrong date (they advertised and scheduled the livestream for June the 19th, but it was supposed to be for June 24th) and this affected my attendance. I also had some technical issues with the overlay in stream yard so even though I was able to start my own livestream on the correct date and time I didn't get the overlay issue worked out in time. If scheduling permits I will do a pre-recorded discussion of Pigs so the book club members can get their book discussion. I can't see the stats from the Lamb branch FB page but it looks like I may have had 1 person in attendance and 1 share.

The newsletter sign-up is at 23 folks. We have 59 likes and 67 followers for the Facebook page, an increase from last month by one for each metric.

MIKE GONZALES AND PAULA BRANDIMARTE (Customer Service Representatives) LIBRARY @ THE Y

- The Library @ the Y saw 1234 patrons in June, which is an average of about 54/day.
- Passive programs, they gave out 182 coloring sheets and 4 kits to go to children and 10 puzzles to adults.
- The Y also fielded 199 calls while serving as the Call Center.

"Hello! As we are leaving the month, I would like to thank you for having a Pride display on the second floor. I took pictures and plan to eventually check out many of the titles featured on the display. Thank you for celebrating 2SLGBTQIA+ voices and our community in Pueblo!"

Hi Thad!

"Kudos! I'm glad to hear that you are getting the recognition you deserve for the hard work you invest in your displays! You always do such a great job with them!"

Thanks!

Submission to the Rawlings Library & comment from Amy Nelson, Director – Rawlings Library

"Dear Jon - Last Sunday my husband and I, visitors to Pueblo, desperately needed a computer. Naturally, we went to the library.

In the computer area we were greeted with kind enthusiasm by Rebecca. She helped for 2 hours...inquiring if we were okay; letting us know she would be happy to help; always making sure that our needs, whether having to do with the copier or our lack of a USB drive or our own lack of expertise on this computer, were met. And better yet: she did the same thing for everyone else! Each person who walked in was greeted kindly and with respect and genuine interest.

So, thanks. We finished our task in record time. We knew we had been in the presence of a great librarian/helper/teacher/human. Thanks for hiring this lady. Hope to see Rebecca again someday when we get to Pueblo.

Bet you have lots more wonderful people on your staff also. Your library is super".

Sincerely, Dennis & Terrie Drake
