User Services

DIRECTOR:

- Jill Kleven left the role of Director of User Services, and Elizabeth Flores began working as Interim Director on May 11.
- Elizabeth reached out to vendors and other contacts to make sure administrative rights for all accounts were switched over from Jill to Elizabeth.

TRAINING

- All the staff members of Technical Services completed the Safety and Security Training.
- Peggy Bilger, Lee Vigil, Pat Mascarenas, and Michele Myzia participated in training sessions for BTCAT.

ILS

- Daniel Gaghan met with ByWater regarding the ILL module. Work on the module is ongoing.
- Daniel finished reviewing Koha Item Types and deleted extras.

COLLECTION DEVELOPMENT

- Theia Bravo and Elizabeth have continued to create orders for the Opening Day Collections (ODC) for the Rawlings refresh.
- Jessica Casados and Theia have been reviewing hotpot and tablet records to identify items that can be turned off.
- Jessica has been removing old and non-circulating items from the PCC collection in preparation for the collection refresh planned for the fall semester.
- Jessica began working with Lease books, modifying them from Quick Reads to a regular book setting, and discarding those no longer needed for the collection.

ACQUISITIONS

- Peggy, Lee, and Pat have been placing ODC orders, and have begun preparing for the arrival of the materials. Some materials have begun to arrive, and Lee and Pat are completing any needed processing.
- Peggy has begun to order new materials for Special Collections, including new high school yearbooks from the local community.
- Peggy has been cataloging maps for Special Collections.
- Peggy, Lee, Pat, and Michele completed training and a trial period for BTCAT, and are recommending a yearlong subscription. The service will help with the District's Annual Goal of adding diverse friendly subject headings to MARC records. It will also help make corrections to records, and help reduce errors currently appearing with new orders.

Archives Projects

- Cecily continues to work through the non-fiction collection in the vault and prepping materials for the renovation.
- We accessioned one donation of 57 genealogy books and Jasel is processing these books
- Other collections processed include the George King Land Records Collection, the Pueblo Chamber of Commerce Collection and additions were made to the Ephemera Collection
- Submitted report and recommendations on collections moving for Phase 3 to Jon, Sherri, and Amy May 12.

Genealogy Projects

Genealogy charts, Family Group charts, and Basic Pedigree Charts: 30 taken by patrons

Western Research and Genealogy collections expansion: 159 titles added to 2022 Order

Digitization

Blake Hatton has continued to digitize papers from the Arkansas Fryingpan Project Collection. 62 pages were digitized in the month of May.

Additionally, to facilitate metadata cleanup and to create an avenue for work during the remodel, Blake has been learning to use the catcher service through CONTENTdm, which allows for the batch editing of metadata records. A duplicate of the Sally Cole collection, hidden from the public, was created to be used as a test for this service. The process for learning to use this service is ongoing.

Outreach

Atzlan Center

On April 14th, I met with university professors and members of the Chicano Archives Committee to discuss the future southwest studies program that will be coming out of the Atzlan Center. On April 21st, I attended two presentations from recipients of the Atzlan Center grants.

Chicano Archives Committee

On May 3rd, we had our dedication ceremony for 3 members of the committee in our Hall of Fame. On May 17th, the Chicano Archives Committee met. We discussed oral history projects, a list of Chicano murals in Pueblo.

Parent Connects Committee

On May 17th, I met with the Parent Connects Committee. I updated them on our library programs, the English classes, summer reading and the renovation.

El Centro de los Pobres

On May 10th, I took donations and introduced Jasel to Sister Nancy.

Continuum of Care Committee

On May 24th, I met with the Continuum of Care Committee. I updated them on the renovation, English Classes and summer reading.

Database Audit

I have been meeting with Daniel and Crystal about doing a DEI database audit to see what changes we would like to see in our online resources.

Youth Services

Youth Services did 18 outreaches for the month of May to promote Summer Reading. We reached 1,354 people in the community!

Pueblo was the 19th largest registrant of kiddos in the country for Dolly Parton's Imagination Library!! PCCLD signed up 243 kids in one month! PCCLD currently has 1,496 children enrolled in Imagination Library.

Youth Services packed 3200 books from EPIC for Summer Reading. Thank you EPIC!
