Miscellaneous

Reading Playtimes

We hosted two Reading Playtime Workshops as part of our partnership with Catholic Charities. The families filled out pre and post assessments so we could target their specific goals and needs. One parent said, "I learn(ed) new ideas about literacy, not only read(ing), but move with kids or play music, thanks".

KIMBERLY SEWELL

Kimberly has been part of the Pueblo community for most of her life. Through her career she has worked with several organizations providing arts education to area youth.

As an artist, Kimberly has experimented with a variety of art mediums, a portion of which are displayed here, and often focuses on portraiture and botanicals in her subject matter. Most recently, Kimberly has been exploring watercolor illustration and hopes to one day illustrate children's books.

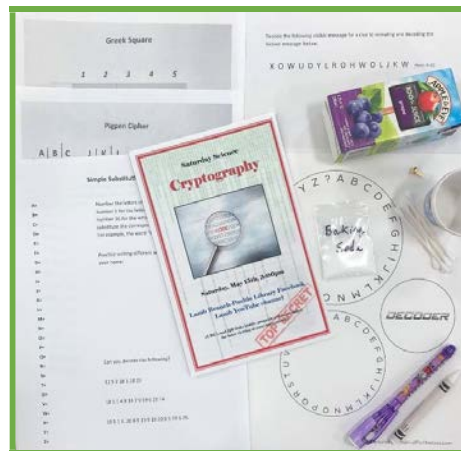

Much of Kimberly's recent work has been commissioned and include the annual coloring page for the Colorado State Fair. To contact Kimberly for commissioned work, find her on Facebook at facebook.com/housecatcreations or Instagram at kimberlysewell12. To purchase a piece displayed here, please discuss with the library staff.

LOVELY MURRELL (Customer Service Representative)

- Newsletter: The newsletter increased from 20 people signed up to 23. I noticed a spike after I did my workshop with the Colorado State Library In Session: Let's Get Digital : How To Bring Your Programs Online.
- Lovely From The Library: The Lovely from The Library Facebook Page also is now at 58 likes and 66 followers, that's with all organic and word of mouth because I don't pay for ads. We did a "reading group round up" because I was still recovering from my reaction to my second COVID vaccination. There were 39 interactions.
- Display:
My themed display for May was Awesome Audio. I designed a banner and picked audio books (CD, Play A ways, and e-audio books through hoopla) based off of a 2020 study on immersive media and books that showed emerging demographics to watch were Black and Latino, millennials, and men. These same groups prefer audio books, so I picked the books we have that those demographics are engaged with. It paid off that display did very well.

MIKE GONZALES AND PAULA BRANDIMARTE (Customer Service Representatives)

- LIBRARY @ THE Y

The Library @ the Y saw 625 patrons in May, which is an average of about 26/day. For passive programs, they gave out 176 coloring sheets and 18 kits to go to children and 6 puzzles to adults. The Y also fielded 204 calls while serving as the Call Center.

PW Curbside Service:

PW had 46 curbside delivery appointments in May.

Economic Development:

PW contributed to the community's economic development by providing technology training to 11 customers and resume writing help to 2 customers in the month of May.

Outreach:

On May 28 PW hosted a vaccination clinic. Two weeks prior to the clinic PW staff visited 13 local businesses, Swallows & PW High Schools, and 13 PW churches in an effort to get the word out about the clinic. We had a successful clinic with 44 participants.

User ServicesDIRECTOR

- Jill Kleven met with other directors to discuss moving the Substitute Budget to department budgets in order for managers to utilize their substitute use more efficiently. The departmental budgets will begin on July 1st.
- Jill, Jennifer Tozer, Nick Potter, and Nicki Lawless met to discuss their Embedded Evaluation project taking place this summer. The project will focus on evaluating the outcomes of Reading Pays.
- Jill wrote an RFP for the basement level AMH that will be installed during the renovation. She is working with James Shook from HBM Architects on this project.
- Jill watched a demo of the Niche Academy with Kayci Barnett and Michelle Vigil. She will help support the staff training when it comes to databases and electronic resources.
- Jill contacted the school districts to try and get hotspots and chromebooks back by the middle of June so recalled Verizon hotspots are able to be traded out.

COLLECTION DEVELOPMENT

- Theia Bravo, Elizabeth Flores, and Jill trained with Community Relations in order to verify the Reading Pays accounts. It will be a big task for Technical Services, especially during the month of June.
- Work with the diversity audit continues.
- The new digital book club title, Afterlife started on May 27th.

ACQUISITIONS/CATALOGING

- Peggy Bilger continued her work with Special Collections.
- Peggy also gathered yearbooks from the local high schools and will begin working on that.

ILL

- The Ask Us Service is moving from Jessica Casados in ILL to RRA. It makes more sense to have the service in a centralized public service department.

"Pueblo in the Roaring '20s: A Decade from Boom to Bust" 5/21-5/31 attendance: 160

"Water is Liquid Gold" 3rd floor exhibit. Attendance: 496

The exhibit covers several areas on the importance of water and its history in Pueblo and Colorado. One case has a booklet on how the Red Cross helped people after the 1921 Flood; Another case showcase personal testimonies of people who survived the flood; Two cases have information, photos and history of Acequias (ditches) in the San Luis Valley and explain why ditches aren't just ditches, but life sustaining waterways; one case has information on the 1910 Irrigation Convention that brought in 10,000 people into Pueblo. There are also several books about water in one of the exhibit cases and Meghan sent Michelle several books to show on our website about water that people may check out.

Charlene was invited to join the Santa Fe Trail Committee through History Colorado for their big 100 anniversary of the trail. They may be using two of her PowerPoint presentation on the women of the Santa Fe Trail. She was asked by author Virginia Sanchez to co-author an article on Prowers, a cattle rancher during the Santa Fe Trail, and his wife Amache, who was the daughter of one of the Arapaho Chiefs who was killed in the Sand Creek Massacre.

Charlene worked with the Daughters of the American Revolution in selecting their yearly donation of books of $100. Usually there are several books but this year only one was chosen which amounts to about that much, "History of the Colorado State Society, National Society, Daughters of the American Revolution, 1895-2020, 125th Anniversary Edition.

Hi Ciara,

I wanted to pass on some great praise from a patron! They said they absolutely loved the constellation kits. Their children enjoyed them and they were such a fun process and thing to create. They wanted to give kudos to whoever thought of such a great idea!

HRC Outreach

Reforma 2021 Conference

On May 21st, I provided a presentation on PCCLD's Hispanic Resource Center at the Reforma Conference for the Colorado Chapter. Reforma is the National Association to Promote Library and Information Services to Latinos and the Spanish-Speaking. I have been a part of this organization since 2013. I have been asked to participate in their Reforma CO Scholarship Committee this year.

Mobile Vaccination Unit

In May, I was available for interpretation at the vaccine clinics at our branches. I was unable to go to Giodone, but Jerry was able to be there.

Chicano Archives Committee

The Chicano Archives Committee met on May 11th. We have been discussing the changeover for the Atzlan Center and the director and archivist positions.

Parent Connects Committee

On May 18th, I met with the Parent Connects Committee. I updated them on our library programs and that we are getting ready for Summer Reading and Books in the Park. I also let them know about the change of rules with Covid 19.

Continuum of Care

On May 25th, I attended the Continuum of Care Committee. There was a presentation on our community and homelessness and an upcoming center with RMSER.

Thank You Messages

PCCLD STAFF

Email to Gloria Madrill, Community Relations and Development Coordinator

Library patron, Brittany Nicole, sent an email re: Reading Pays: Pueblo's $1 Million Reading Challenge

"I don't have children but I'm still very happy to see initiatives like this in Pueblo and can't wait to see what it inspires in young people here. Thanks for your efforts!"

PCCLD STAFF

Card to Jon Walker, Executive Director

Ms. Patty Darling, Library Patron

Dear Library District,

"I want you to know that I appreciate our library services so much, and so value the safety and warmth offered to my children and their friends. This library really keeps their attention focused on learning and initiates new and helpful constructs into our community. Thank you for all you have done."

Jerry Vigil, Program & Outreach Specialist, and the Lucero Branch STAFF

Email to Jon Walker, Executive Director

"Hello,

Well did you know you are a Five Star library because of your shoe repair too? Walked to the Lucero and my sandal broke. I thought oh no what was I going to do I had a distance to get home. I went back into the Branch and Jerry got some cord and tied it for me. I said Jon doesn't realize you have cobbler repair here too 😊! Jerry said we are here for you no matter what. WOW!

I feel so comfortable with the staff that I asked for help. Thanks to all the staff at the Lucero Branch and all libraries. I have found all staff at all the branches go out of their way to help!"

Blessings,
Theresa Kosak

Rachel Salazar, Librarian/Asst. Manager – Pueblo West Library

Email to Jon Walker, Executive Director – Jill Kleven, Director User Services – Nick Potter – Director Community Relations & Development

"Hello Mrs. Kleven, Mr. Potter, and Mr. Walker,

First and foremost, I just want to say, "Thank you!" Our Pueblo Libraries are outstanding and I personally wanted to let you know how much I appreciate all the work that you do.

Today my three children visited the Pueblo West Library for the first time since the pandemic. They were excited to participate in the summer reading opportunity, and immediately started looking at the shelves to discover a new adventure. A lady, by the name of Rachel, assisted us in getting them new cards and helped with acclimating us to the reading program. She was exceptional! Not only was she helpful, but was so efficient and patient with all of our needs. Thank you for hiring her to serve our community!

Again, as a family, we just appreciate you all, and wanted to send a note letting you know."

Take care,

Natalie Brown (Library Patron)

Respectfully submitted,
Jon Walker
Executive Director
