National Poetry Month Poets Talk

4/17/2021, 10:30 AM

Hannah

Hannah hosted a virtual talk with two local poets for National Poetry Month based on connections we made with professor Juan Morales, who runs CSU-Pueblo's literary magazine Tempered Steel. Local poets included Vicci Jacobs and Max Mendieta as they discussed their work, their relationship with poetry, and read aloud some of their poems!

EXHIBITS AND DISPLAYS

Our Exhibit attendance for April is 146.

Here are a few pictures of the many displays for April.

COMMUNITY OUTREACH

We ran a scavenger hunt for children as a way to reacquaint patrons with the library. They identified 9 animals from around the library and received a prize. Thanks to the Friends of the Library Grant, we had great prizes. From Facebook, "My girls thought the animal scavenger hunt last week was so fun!"

CALLS, CURBSIDE AND BUNDLES

The Greenhorn library fielded 225 calls while serving as Call Center on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Saturdays of April. We also delivered books, kits, and program supplies to 4 patrons via our Curbside service.

DIRECTOR

- Six new substitutes were on boarded on April 9th. Jill Kleven scheduled shadowing shifts for them and they have completed all of their training.
- Jill viewed a demo of Niche Academy with others as an option for staff and patron training on various resources such as subscription databases and ebooks/audiobooks. A three-year subscription to Niche Academy was purchased.
- Jill made the recommendation to purchase the subscription to Cloud Library Newsstand beginning in June. The app will offer access to over 7000 E-magazine titles.
- Jill purchased a new database, Guidestar and several print titles for the Non Profit Resource Center. These materials were procured from a donation by Doris Kester.
- Jill, Theia Bravo, and Elizabeth Flores met with Community Relations to discuss the procedures for the Reading Pays Summer Program. Technical Services will be handling the registrations in Koha for the kid's accounts.

COLLECTION DEVELOPMENT

- A diversity audit tool was purchased from Ingram. Elizabeth will be working with public service managers to perform a diversity audit of the collection this year.
- The Request for Reconsideration Committee put forward a recommendation of what to do with the six Dr. Seuss titles that have stopped publication. A decision is pending from the Director.
- A new Request for Reconsideration was assigned to Jill, Theia, and Heather Wilder involving an E-audiobook.

CATALOGING/ACQUISITIONS

- Twenty new parks passes were cataloged and sent to various locations.
- Peggy Bilger and Jill have been asked to speak at the Ingram conference regarding the migration to Koha and the Acquisitions module. The conference will take place in June.

ILS

- Daniel Gaghan met with Bywater Solutions and CLIC to talk about doing testing within the Koha module. Testing is underway.

Youth Services

Summary

Virtual program views are up over last month, with especially good views for the special Food Storytime. Kit numbers are down from last month - definitely due to last month's Spring Break outreaches.

Other highlights:

- Maria presented a panel at CLiC with Youth Services librarians from Denver and Colorado Springs, talking about what we learned during COVID shutdown.
- The Mental Health Box project, a collaboration with Human Resources, came to completion this month. Ten boxes were made and delivered to branches and departments who requested them. These boxes were decorated and filled by staff, including Magi Wren, Britt Sorel, Jac Baros, Martin Newman and Ona McLaughlin. Pictures and feedback are below.

Three Mental Health boxes painted by Martin Newman. These boxes went to Lucero, Giodone and Pueblo West.

I would like to thank you all for the wonderful box of goodies, with the tea, hot cocoa, coloring postcards and worry stones. I was given the worry stone with the S on it, funny enough the day after my birthday it was on my desk as if it was made for me. So thank you all again.

-Sean Miller, IT

Thanks for the amazing mental health box! I am particularly fond of the little smooth stone. What a great treat!

Detailed Breakdown

Outdoor Program

YS staff were excited to get back outside for our first outreach visit since March 2020. We joined the Boys and Girls Club and Health Solutions at the Zoo for a lovely family day, where we gave out crafts and info on our online programs. Special thanks to Ashley Minnich of Barkman, who helped us staff the table.

Little friends joined Miss Kirsten and Miss Jacque for Storytime.

Ciara demonstrates a bristle bot. "Love it" - said one Facebook commenter.

A regular Saturday patron, Preston, and his mom came in. The mom said Preston likes to play 'library' and his mom has to be me and his auntie has to be Jim from Security. SO PRECIOUS! They're really excited to be coming back in.

-Magi Wren

So my mom has been doing the 30-day self-love journal prompts with her students as their creative writing exercises. She told me the Bishop came to her school the other day and asked her students what they were doing. When they told him he started explaining how important it is that we love ourselves as God loves us and was amazed by their work and assignment. Very proud to have been a part of this!

Outreach

Catholic Charities Bilingual Program

On April 22nd, I partnered with Hannah and Ashley from Barkman to provide a bilingual storytime on a virtual parent meeting. We were celebrating Earth Day with a special story and I showed the parents the new Vox books and talked about Dia de los Ninos/Dia de los Libros.

Chicano Archives Committee

The Chicano Archives Committee met on April 13th. We have been asked to have input in upcoming changes with the archives. Blake is almost finished with a film project from the Chicano Movement in partnership with the CSU - P Chicano Archives.

Parent Connects Committee

On April 20th, I met with the Parent Connects Committee. I updated them on our library programs and that we are getting ready for Summer Reading and Books in the Park. I have given them Maria Kramer's contact information in case they would like to participate with Books in the Park.

Continuum of Care

On April 27th, I attended the Continuum of Care Committee. I received updates on a walk in clinic for Covid 19 vaccines and there was a presentation on our community and homelessness.
