

🌈 Kanopy Picks for June! 🌈

“Southern Pride” (2018)

This inspiring documentary profiles two lesbian bar owners in Mississippi battling to host local Pride events in the wake of ignorance and hatred stirred up by the election of Donald Trump.

Click here to watch on Kanopy.

“East/West Sex and Politics” (2008)

How does one build a movement for minority rights - especially gay rights - in a country without a democratic tradition? Jochen Hick's slyly constructed documentary gradually reveals the contradictory nature of queer life in Moscow.

Click here to watch on Kanopy.

“Pride Denied” (2016)

This film tells the story of how corporate sponsors coopted the concept of LGBTQ pride, turning it into a feel-good brand and blunting its radical political edge.

Click here to watch on Kanopy.

Kanopy provides 10 checkout credits per month!

“Risk” (2000)

Jazz, the official symbol of American democracy abroad, splinters at home into different camps: white and black, cool and hot, East and West, traditional and modern. Miles Davis becomes the most influential musician of his generation.

Click here to watch on Kanopy.

“Strange Fruit: The Biography of a Song” (2002)

STRANGE FRUIT is the first documentary exploring the history and legacy of the Billie Holiday classic. The song's evolution tells a dramatic story of America's radical past using one of the most influential protest songs ever written as its epicenter.

Click here to watch on Kanopy.

“Don Juan DeMarco” (1995)

Johnny Depp stars in this romantic drama about a man who believes himself to be the legendary Don Juan—and who attempts suicide after the loss of his one true love. But placed under the care of a weary therapist, the patient begins to cure the doctor.

Click here to watch on Kanopy.

“Robin Williams: Come Inside My Mind” (2018)

A love letter to a unique comic talent, who left us far too soon, COME INSIDE MY MIND takes viewers through the one-of-a-kind actor and comedian's life and career, revealing what drove him to give voice to the incredible characters he created in his mind.

Click here to watch on Kanopy.