IERY,
f Commission.

NLAVY RENOUNCES POLITICAL GAME

al to the Chieftain.
nidad, Dec. 29.—S. R. Dunlavy, ocratic candidate for state senator ated by A. N. Parrish, of Lamar, 3 votes, today announced that he d not contest for the office.
believe a contest would be un-lar, although I am convinced that uld be seated," said Mr. Dunlavy. honestly believe that I was elect-and that I could prove the fact he information in my possession, h would establish that frauds were itted in various precincts in this ty on election day. However, it worth the candle. I am going vote my entire time to my busi-and cut out politics."
nlavy recently appealed to the canvassing board to give him a icate of election, but this was d him, the board maintaining that had no legal right to go behind eturns.

LA JUNTA NEWS ITEMS

l to the Chieftain.
Junta, Dec. 29.—J. Rumore, clerk he Harvey house, got home esday from a trip to Denver, he spent Christmas.
nk McDonald, while working in anta Fe shop, broke the middle of his left hand and is laying off.
W. Flemming is the new assist-oreman at the Santa Fe shops.
E. Grimes, who has been looking disabled cars at Garden City, during the sugar beet season for anta Fe, is back to work on the ack in this city.
H. Connelly is reported on the list. His wife left for Boulder lay with her grandson, Howard ar., who will be treated for atism at the sanitarium at that Santa Fe clerks will give their l ball on January 20 at Elks hall.

"The Technical Side, Forward Ideas in Grasshopper Control and Inspection," Professor S. A. Johnson, Fort Collins.

"A Pest District Law Needed in the Fruit Districts for Coddling Moth," George P. Weldon, Grand Junction.

"Grasshopper Laws in Other Lands," W. H. Cooper, editor of Morgan County Herald, Fort Morgan.

Evening Session 7:30 p. m.

"The Horticultural Inspection Law, and Laws in Other States," C. P. Gillette, state entomologist.

"The Pest Inspection District Bill," George A. Carlson, district attorney.

"Legislative Difficulties," Hon. Harrison Teller.

Organization of a pest district league.

SWALLOWS WOMAN DIES AT CANON CITY

Special to the Chieftain.

Canon City, Dec. 29.—Mrs. Mary Richie Aiken, aged 30, died at the hospital here at 12:45 o'clock this morning from blood poisoning, complicated by pneumonia, after an illness of a little more than ten days. She was the wife of F. W. Aiken, agent of the Rio Grande railroad company at Swallows, who is also general chairman for the Order of Railway Telegraphers on the Rio Grande system.

Mrs. Aiken was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James P. Richie of Hillside and is well known in this county.

Besides a husband and many relatives and friends, she leaves four children, three sons, and a little daughter.

The remains were taken to Swallows on Rio Grande train No. 2 this afternoon and will be buried from the family home there next Sunday.

HOLIDAY RATES.
ONE FARE ROUND TRIP,
VIA COLORADO & SOUTHERN.
On sale December 24, 25, 26, 31 and January 1 and 2. Return limit January 3. Special rates for teachers and students on closing day of school. Get tickets at city office, Third and Main

SALIDA ELKS' HOM FORMALLY OP

Special to the Chieftain.

Salida, Dec. 29.—The Elks' ne representing a cost of $30,000, nually dedicated today. There elaborate programme and addr Jos. H. Loor of Pueblo and Wheaton of Denver. A recep ball was given this evening a was a banquet at the Dento Visiting Elks from Leadville City, Florence, Pueblo and were present and were met at t by local Elks, headed by the The hall is one of the best state and is furnished in an e manner.

NORTH DENVER BOY GET RHODES SCHOLA

Special to the Chieftain.

Denver, Dec. 29.—MacPhe Donaldson, a senior in Denver sity, was elected today to Rhode arship by the committee of ex deans. Young Donaldson is 2 old and a graduate from the Denver high school.

GREELEY BOY DROWNED IN CALKINS

Special to the Chieftain.

Greeley, Dec. 29.—Carl Wilh 13-year-old boy, was drowned ing through the ice at Calkin two miles north of here, toda boy together with several oth was running races on the ice.

LARIMER FARMERS WILL DEMAND $6 FOR B

Special to the Chieftain.

Fort Collins, Dec. 29.—The of Larimer county, at a meeting adopted a resolution demanding ton for their sugar beets next s They state that they will not si tracts under this amount.