satti" from Don Giovanni; Miss rahams played Mozart's Fan- C Minor; Mrs. Emily Kern sang the Garvatte from Mig- ss Grace Balcom, violinist, 'Berceuse" from Jocelyn and J. Burrows concluded the pro- th Leybach's Fifth Nocturne.

YING BEET SUGAR.

o and the Pueblo trade in gen- oing its part in the support of sugar industry," said Charles of the Henkel-Duke Mercantile yesterday. "Cane sugar is olesale at $5.20 per hundred- nd beet sugar at $5.00 and the the latter are from five to ten much as that of the cane su-

COMPANY TO ORERATE LAUNDRY

arrangements for the organi- f the new co-operative laun- e taken at a meeting held last Labor hall by the Laundry ' association and others inter- the project of a union laun- was decided to incorporate a with a capital stock of $10,- stock of which will be sold he various labor unions of the individuals, although a limit placed on the amount of stock any one person.

Hermond presided at the The committee appointed to ate the cost of establishing a reported that $3,000 would be , $2,500 of which must be cash They reported further that ble was anticipated in raising ey.

's were elected as follows: it, F. M. Hermond; vice pres- L. Whittle; treasurer, Harry secretary, F. E. Phelps. tockholders were named as in- tors as follows: George Sites, Sullivan, Harry Harter, J. G. R. Brent, M. A Bawn and G. ce. These, with eight others stitute the board of directors. pected that work will be com- on the new laundry within two rst of a series of socials to be the Harmonie society was held ning in Red Men's hall, in the an block. It was a thorough and enjoyable in every way, s attended by a large number ts. The first part of the even- devoted to a musical program, hich there was dancing, and re- nts were served. Max Schwer r manager.

ARMONIE SOCIAL.

PERSONAL.

Highberger has returned from to Pennsylvania.

David Kletzky is convalescent is recent illness.

Goehring of Akron, Ohio, is here Mrs. H. R. Francis.

S. G. Winch has returned from nded visit to Chicago.

J. M. Fenton left last night on the ceremony. Mrs. George Berry entertained the newly married pair at a dinner at which there were about 50 guests. Both young people are well known in Avondale, the bride having lived there since childhood. The groom is one of the sterling young business men of the little city and is to be heartily congratulated upon securing so charming a bride.

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF.

DIED AT FLORENCE—Mrs. Emma A. Akin, who lived in Pueblo many years, died November 2, in Florence at the home of her son-in-law, A. A. Hull.

BUSINESS MEETING—The Belle Kearney "Y's" will hold a business meeting this evening at 7:30 with Miss Queen Shepherd, 1022 west Thirteenth street.

NO MEETING—No meeting of the trustees of the north side water works will be held this evening on account of election. The pay roll was allowed last night.

OPEN NEW HALL—The Salvation Army will hold their welcome meeting in their new hall, corner of Grand avenue and Third street tonight. All are welcome.

PLENTY OF DUCKS—Duck hunters are having great sport around Pueblo. The birds are reported thick and very fat on Huerfano lakes and the other small bodies of water around Pueblo as well as up and down the river.

CHECKER CLUB—Members of the Y. M. C. A. are planning for the formation of chess and checker club. A meeting for the preliminary arrangements will be held next Monday evening in the association rooms. Not only members of the association but anyone in the city will be eligible to membership and any wishing to join should hand in their name to Secretary Bilheimer this week.

ARE BEING HELD—C. A. Thompson and Charles Dickerman are still under arrest on a charge of perpetrating a "con" game. It is alleged that they were around the city with a petition for a Mrs. Davis, whom the petition said was the mother of eight children and whose husband was a railroad man who had lost both legs. It is said that no such person as Mrs. Davis existed. Officer Fitzgerald made the arrest. There will probably be a county case made against them.

AMUSEMENTS.

EUGENIIE BLAIR TONIGHT.

Miss Eugenie Blair in her unrivaled production of "Peg Woffington" will be seen at the Grand opera house tonight.

When Miss Blair first decided to play "Peg Woffington" plans were at once perfected for a complete and costly Vane. As the neglected, but still loving wife, Miss Montell essays a part to which she is eminently fitted, and a singular coincidence is that the novelist's description of this character is identical with the general appearance of the actress, who, in playing it, does not have to resort to "make-up." Mr. Glaser will be seen as Ernest Vane, and he presents an intelligent conception of the role of the unfaithful husband who succeeds in winning the love of the actress Woffington.

The remainder of the cast is exceptionally strong and well-balanced, including Miss Julia Gordon, Miss Clara Lambert, Mr. James Daly, Mr. G. Alanson Lessey, Mr. Frank Richter, Mr. Walter Goodrich, Mr. John Baldwin and Hugh T. Swayne.

Lower floor, $1.00 and $1.50. Balcony 50 and 75 cents.

CHORUS OF A HUNDRED.

The management of the orchestral Sunday night concerts at the Grand Opera house is arranging to have a chorus of one hundred to assist in presenting the Anvil Chorus from Il Trovatore at the concert November 10. Six anvils will be used and the chorus will include many of the singers in the Harmonic society and Rover Athletic club. Prof. Kurtz will direct the chorus rehearsals, the first of which will be held at an early date.

ON THEIR WAY—HERE SOON.

Wood & Ward's big company presenting "The Two Merry Tramps." Prices 25, 50, 75 cents.

BUYING KANSAS CATTLE.

Tacoma, Wash.—The experiment made early last fall of importing cattle from Kansas and Nebraska proved so successful that a number of other Whitman county farmers are leaving Pullman and Colfax for Kansas City and Omaha to purchase more cattle. Early in the fall James Woodley, of Colfax, shipped 500 heard of one and two-year-old steers to Whitman county

