Funeral from the house at 2 p. m. today.

UNITED PRESBYTERIAN REVIVAL

Mrs. Peake Starts Out Most Encouragingly the First Day.

Mrs. Peake preached at the United Presbyterian church to two deeply interested audiences yesterday. Her earnestness at once draws her hearers to her, and her manner of handling the Word of God makes her powerful.

The subject of her 3 o'clock Bible reading was "Prevailing Prayer." "Why," she asked, "do we have so few specific answers to prayer?" She answered the question by saying that "we do not fulfill the conditions." Every one of the 30,000 promises that we may plead in prayer has a condition at-
