Durango the works were running full and that everything was quiet. Mr. Guiterman stated to a reporter for the Chieftain that he would make his headquarters in Pueblo from now on.

No one knows the unbearable torture, the peculiar and agonizing pain, caused by piles, unless they have suffered from them. Many believe them incurable. This is a mistake. Proper treatment will cure them. Tabler's Buckeye Pile Ointment is an infallible cure. Price 50c, in bottles, tubes 75c. Trial botties at the Baldwin Drug Co.

INQUEST TODAY.

Coroner Fugard Will Investigate the Death of George Allen.

George Allen, the night watchman at the Colorado Southern and Santa Fe railroads, who died from the effects of a bullet wound through his heart yesterday morning at 2:30 o'clock was well known in this city. Only since consolidation of these two roads had he been working in the yards. Mrs. Allen stated the facts of the death of her husband to a reporter for the Chieftain shortly after her husband's death. She said that he usually came to his home, 822 east Second street, about 7 o'clock in the morning, but returned early yesterday, reaching the house about 2:30. She, in her half-asleep condition, heard him come in in the dark and start to undress. He went over to a high cabinet and, as she thought, attempted to place a large 44-caliber Colt revolver which he wore, on top of the cabinet. The next she heard was the report of the pistol and her husband's agonized cry, "Oh, wife, I am shot!" Coming to full consciousness with a start she asked, "How's that George?" he replied, as he fell, "Wife, I am dying. Get a doctor." The neighbors, hearing the shot, rushed in and when a lamp had been lighted, they found him lying on the floor face upwards, with extended hands, dead. The pistol lay a few feet from his hands pointing towards his heart. Officer F. L. Potter, who lives next door, summoned the police and coroner. After the remains had been examined the body was removed to the morgue, corner D street and Union avenue where it now is. Coroner Fugard will hold an inquest this morning at 10 o'clock. The funeral will be held this afternoon from the Fountain Presbyterian church corner Fifth and Fountain streets at 4 o'clock.

UNITY CLUB—A dance was given in the ordinary of the Grand hotel last evening by the members of the Unity club. A very pleasant evening was spent by all. About forty couples were present.

NEW FLOOR—Yesterday carpenters were at work putting a new floor in the hose house on north Main street and Hose wagon No. 1 was kept all ready for action hitched to a pole on the other side of the street.

INVITATIONS.—Mr. and Mrs. William Kemp of North Topeka, Kas., have issued invitations for the wedding of their daughter, Miss Ida B. Kemp, to Alfred J. Hayden Tuesday evening, August 29. Mr. Hayden is well known in Pueblo where he is in business as a window trimmer.

RAILWAY PRESIDENTS—W. G. Purdy, president of the C., R. I. & P., and President E. T. Jeffery, of the D. & R. G., passed through Pueblo on a special train of a baggage and two private cars at 2:30 yesterday afternoon. They have just completed a tour over the narrow gauge system of the Rio Grande and went up to Denver.

SMALL BLAZE—An alarm sent in at 5:27 yesterday morning from box 76 called the fire department to the residence of Sam S. Steward, 1709 west Sixteenth street. The flames started in the kitchen over the cooking range, but the members of the family had put out the flames by the time the department arrived. The damage was trifling.

WEST FOURTH STREET.—The attention of the proper authorities is called to the awful stench arising near the north end of the West Fourth Street viaduct. A carcass of some kind is in a bad state of decomposition. The recent rains have made the floor of the viaduct as bad as any street in Pueblo on account of the rocks and dirt washed down from the mesa above.

WOODMEN.—Camp No. 2, Woodmen of the World, held a rousing meeting last night and Captain E. E. Booth, a member of the camp, made an entertaining address on his experiences in Manila. The camp voted $10 for the free train fund and decided to observe September 18 as Manila day. At that time a reception will be tendered to all Woodmen who are with the Colorado regiment.

APPOINTMENT—H. W. Sharp, formerly local agent at Denver for the Santa Fe, has been appointed commercial agent for the same company at
