of the specifica-
erent physical ex-
, but one or more
that James used
language toward

ipman Minor Mer-
charge of hazing,
. Mr. Merlweth-
s resignation from
pes it will be ac-
will be allowed to
's object in not
to bring out evi-
e hazed in a good-
hout brutality, and
His counsel says
ly anxious for the
that all of his of-
tted prior to his
pman Branch, in
ived fatal injuries.

EVATOR
ES TO WALL
patch.
—The firm of Mc-
hich controls one
St. Louis and two
ded operations to-
ager Babcock said:
igh office expenses
usiness."
e assets will offset
gh no figures could

N STYLE!
O MORE!
outhern trains are
nd style.

TRAINS
Grande R. R. each
o, Colorado Springs
lay. Try the Busi-
leaving at 8:00 a.
urs to Denver. A

okers
ND that you turn
anuary 1, and be-
of the following
brands of cigars:
hield at 10c. The
and The Smokers'

trian citizen, started this morning for a visit to his old home at Agram, Austria. This is his first visit to the fatherland, and he anticipates a pleasurable time.

T. G. McCarthy is in enver today on business.

Miss Cora Crawford, stenographer in the district attorney's office, is about to leave, much to the grief of District Attorney White and his assistants, for a position with the Missouri Pacific railroad.

Frank Lomeister, Leadville, county clerk of Lake county, was in town this morning.

FUNERALS

The funeral of A. F. Vahn took place at 10 o'clock this morning from Linkins' chapel. Interment in Roselawn.

DIED.

Joseph Anenik, 25 years old, died in Leadville Sunday. The body was sent from Leadville to McCarthy's chapel yesterday. The funeral will be held from No. 511 Moffatt avenue, at 8:30 o'clock tomorrow morning, and from St. Mary's church at 9 o'clock.

Emil, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Trnckg, died at the family home, No. 1432 Pine street, yesterday. The funeral will be held from the house at 9:30 o'clock tomorrow morning, and from St. Mary's church at 10 o'clock.

Three Weddings Last Night

Miss Mary T. Wright and Lewis Barnum were united in marriage at 8:30 o'clock last night at the First Congregational church by the Rev. A. E. Holl. Mrs. Harris and Mrs. Kellogg sang, and the wedding march was played by Miss Katherine Bullen. Charles Barnum, the groom's brother, acted as best man and Miss Adaline Wright, sister of the bride, was the bridesmaid.

Eleanor B. Shepherd and George W. Phillco, both of Pueblo, were united in marriage yesterday by the Rev. J. L. Weaver at the home of C. C. McNutt, 214 Jackson street.

Bessie Gatewood, Deadwood, S. D.,

States district court here today. His liabilities are placed at $745,000, with all assets exempt. There is a long list of creditors.

THE DISC
Of Lydia E. Pinkham's V
Great Woman's Reme

No other female medicine in the wo unqualified endorsement.
No other medicine has such a recor hosts of grateful friends as has Lydia E. Pinkham's
It will entirely cure the worst fo