

Casey,
s. Calvin sister-inn, Rocky
a Nelson of Rocky ren, Rose
osa; Re-
l, Mont.;
orth, Cal-
West Palm
rvived by
ren. Pre-
husband, 1966; and
eeman in born May
as. Mem-esbyterian
Memorial
sday, Feb.
ited Meth-
the Rev.
fficiating.
Thursday,
mosa City
A PAPER

Davis Mortuary

CREMATORIUM/MONUMENTS

Broadway at Evans 542-1984

Daryl E. Higbee passed away Tuesday, Jan. 30, 1990. He was born in Carlton, Colo., on April 18, 1931. Mr. Higbee was a chairman of the Deacons of the First Baptist Church, an adult Sunday School teacher as well as an educator in School District No. 70 for 32 years after receiving his BA, MA, and Specialist in Education degrees from Western State College. He is survived by his wife, Cora-Belle, of the family home; two sons, Kelvin Higbee, of the family home; Kirk (Ana) Higbee-Barzola, of Colorado City; one daughter, Kama (Rick) Holland, of Monte Vista; two grandchildren, Kanah Higbee-Barzola, Jarae Holland; two brothers, Larry (Ramona) Higbee, Carl (Linda) Higbee; his mother, Augusta Hartless, all of Pueblo; as well as numerous nieces and other relatives. Visitation for Mr. Higbee will be today from 2 p.m. until 8 p.m. at the mortuary. Funeral service will be held on Thursday, Feb. 1, 1990, at 11 a.m. in the Davis Memorial Chapel with Dr. David Horton of the First Baptist Church officiating. Interment will follow in the Roselawn Cemetery. The family respectfully requests the omission of food and flowers and asks that memorial contributions be made to the First Baptist Church Fellowship Fund or to the Sangre de Cristo Hospice, either direct or through the mortuary.

SINCE 1887

ALMONT

GEORGE F. McCARTHY

401 BROADWAY • 542-4434

MARVIN MEMORIALS

PUEBLO • 544-7273

CREMATORIUM/ PUEBLO

Wilson

CANON CITY

Boies

WALSenburg

McCarthy Almont

Frances V. Angster, Jan. 30, 1990. Wife of Joseph D. Angster who passed away Jan. 7, 1973. Mother of Anna Mae Angster. Grandmother of Ron (La Shawn) Angster, Ace Angster, Phyllis (Felix) Montoya, Tina Angster, George Angster, Kathy Leisure and Richard Angster Jr. and mother-in-law of Juanita Chavez and Lorraine Atwood, all of Pueblo. Sister of Katie Walz, Los Angeles, Calif. Also survived by seven grandchildren and numerous nieces and nephews. Mrs. Angster was employed as janitor in the Thatcher Building and American Federal Savings before retiring. She was a member of St. Patrick Parish. Funeral Mass, 10 a.m. Friday, St. Patrick Church. Interment, Roselawn. The family may be contacted at 214 E. Abriendo. They suggest memorials be made to the charity of donor's choice.

Wilson Almont

Floyd E. Miller, Jan. 27, 1990. Husband of Idabelle Miller, who passed away 1979. Father of Floy Smith, Lamar; Florine (Harold) Reid, Bandon, Ore.; James (Glenda) Miller, Canon City; and Jack (Dona) Miller, Corpus Christi, Texas. Also survived by nine grandchildren and 22 great-grandchildren. Service, 2 p.m. Thursday, Wilson Almont Chapel, will be conducted by the Rev. Kirk Fowl-