DIED

DOROTHY—The 2-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. McGill, died Tuesday at home of her parents at Maitland, Colo. The remains were brought to Pueblo at noon yesterday. Funeral will be held today from the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McGill, 829 south Union Ave.

BEYER—Wednesday, March 6, 1912, Louis Beyer, age 83, at the family residence, 1553 east Seventh street. The deceased is survived by a wife and son, Louis C. Beyer, of Dawson City, Alaska, and a daughter, Mrs. T. C. Van Arsdale of this city. He was a member of Union Lodge No. 60 A. F. and A. M. of Baltimore. The remains are at Davis & Vories. Funeral announcement will be made later.

HRVAT—Wednesday, March 6, 1912, Joseph Hvrat, age 24, in the city. The remains are at McCarthy's. Funeral announcement later.

APPLEGATE—Wednesday, March 6, 1912, Benjamin Applegate, age 84, at the home of a daughter, Mrs. J. P. Conner, 1033 east Orman avenue. The remains are at McCarthy's. Funeral announcement later.

CLARK—Wednesday, March 6, 1912, Mrs. Eliza Jane Clark, aged 83, mother of J. B. Clark, at the family home, 315 Lake avenue. The funeral will take place from the home tomorrow morning at 8:30 and at 9 o'clock from the St. Patrick's church. Rev. J. B. Schimpf will officiate. Interment will be made in Roselawn.

BORN

JOHNSON—Wednesday, March 6, 1912, to Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Johnson, 2619 Second avenue, a son.

Funeral Notices

The funeral of D. J. Elliot, the fireman who met his death in a D. & R. G. wreck near Otis, Colo., Monday morning was held yesterday morning at 11 o'clock from the United Undertaking company's chapel. The services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Luke. A large number of former friends of the dead man were present to pay a farewell tribute to their departed brother. The remains were escorted to the Union depot by members of the B. of L. F. and E, No. 59. The flower bearers were J. T. DeJersy, H. T. Beinmiller, N. W. Finley and M. L. Barket. The remains will be interred in the Canon City cemetery.

The funeral of Lucy E. Brown was held yesterday morning at 11 o'clock from the family residence at Carlile, Colo. The services were conducted by Rev. O. B. Pershing. A choir sang "Safe in the Arms of Jesus," "Song Sound of My Soul." Interment was in the Beaver Creek cemetery in charge of Davis & Vories.

The funeral of Mrs. John Sanders will be held this afternoon at 1 o'clock from Davis & Vories' chapel, and at 1:30 o'clock from Mt. Carmel church. Interment will be made in Roselawn.

vertising will be the subject of Mr. Coleman's Pueblo talk.

MERCHANTS FAVOR LIGHTS—The project to install ornamental lights on Main street between First and Seventh streets is meeting with the general approval of the Main street merchants and it is now thought that nearly all will sign the agreement to place the rights on the street. A large number have already signed the agreement and the people who are boosting the proposition along believe that it will be carried, not by a mere majority but by a unanimous vote.

SUIT FOR DAMAGES—F. A. and Mollie E. Barber yesterday filed suit in the district court against Ella Johnson. The complaint is for specific performance and the plaintiff prays for certain property to be delivered to them by the defendant and asks $500 damages for the delay in delivery of the property in question.

SPECIAL MEETING—A special meeting of the Columbian branch of the parent-teachers' association will be held in the Columbia school at 3:30 o'clock Friday afternoon, to consider sending a delegate to the international convention at St. Louis. All members urged to be present.

PETTITION FILED—A petition of intervention was filed in the district court yesterday by the National Security company of New York in the case of the Lloyd Garrett company versus T. J. Mosher.

BUYS RESIDENCE PROPERTY—The Prudential Insurance company yesterday filed a deed with the county clerk whereby the premises at 204 Bradford were transferred to C. C. and Fannie M. Walker. No consideration was given.

BUYS VALUABLE PROPERTY—Mrs. Anna Vaupel of La Junta yesterday closed a deal with the Prudential Insurance company whereby she comes into the possession of valuable residence property on the mesa. No consideration was given but the places which changed hands yesterday are valued at $15,000. The property consists of four dwellings, two residences and two terraces located on east Evans avenue in the 200 block. The property is among the most desirable on the mesa. Mrs. Vauped expects to make her home in this city.

DIRECTORS CHOSEN—The annual meeting of the King Investment company was held Tuesday evening, at which time directors for the coming year were elected. President George E. King submitted his report, which showed that the company is active and growing fast. The directors for the coming year are T. H. Devine, George A. Marsh, C. A. Ballreich, E. T. Whiton, Jacob Schmidt, C. D. Gittings, F. A. Coday, E. J. Millard and George E. King.

a

"THE

Also SM

Presenting "V

ments of the past
for the support of m
church and diocese.
are as follows: Ho
Ascension, $113; St.
rectors of the three
this to the notice of

LOTS OF FREIG
arriving "all in a bu
Fe freight depot
work to such an e
been necessary to pu
handle the business,
gressing nicely, h
freight will be deliv
destination by the
week.

ON THEIR HO
oughly enjoying a h
of much bad weath
encountered at diffe
Wills, traveling frei
Missouri Pacific rail
Ky., and his bride
yesterday. Mr. and return today to Lou
will make their hon
at several points of
ing friends.

SENATE ENTER
home of Mr. and M
last evening the Senate of Centennia
joyed a banquet.
cakes ever turned
oven was one of th
meal. Five-minute
by each member of
a delightful time w

TAKEN TO H
Wann, police report
Journal, was remov
qua hospital early y
suffering from an ab
of the right ear. It i affliction is due t
settling in the head.
the patient suffered
it was said that he
to the hospital for a

Mrs. P. R. Fergus
nounce that she wil
voice culture. Tele
call 309 west Adams.

T. G. McCarthy &
and embalmers. McC
phone 169-A; residen