the same pre-
d the commis-
heir action in and a commitnvestigate his

.

LICE COURT.

in the county
cases of Peter nan who were n June 23 and
ctively for sell-cense. Several kind tried at ealed to this
ll probably all

ARGES.

s arrested yes-
den on a war-
's court charg-
g stolen $25.95
John Gordon.
the county jail
o court today.
l Antonio Cetre the court on Judge Smith
to get out of greed to go in t.

EFS.

l, was brought
erday by Con-
ce Low's court
of non-support s hearing was norning and he bonds.

A small mistake may mean eternal darkness. What we do, we do right. No charge for examination or fitting.

GEO. D. KENDALL

Manufacturing Optician.
With the Rushmer Jewelry Co., Pueblo, Colo

DIED.

BAKER—Tuesday, July 27, 1897, at his home, 705 west Third street, George D. Baker, aged 49 years.

Funeral from the home this afternoon at 2 o'clock and from the First Baptist church at 2:30.

The Salt Lake Tribune has published an attractive book from its popular "Fifty Years Ago Today" series, giving an accurate history of the trip of the first pioneers to Utah. The book has all the original matter as it appeared from day to day, and in addition a complete brief history of the other immigrations of the same year carefully compiled.

Additional portraits and historical subjects are included, the book containing 125 illustrations, which alone are very valuable, 50 per cent of the portraits never before having appeared in print.

The price of the work is 20 cents by mail.

Men's suspenders at Nathan's, 15 cents to 35 cents.

CHICAGO WITHOUT CHANGE.

The Gulf road, in connection with its

ties, Dotte
they all g

You will f
only 10c y

On t
and 15c, t

One
Our price

One
ing them

If y
hot weath

B

Big