Funeral Notices.

The funeral of the late Creed B. Spivey was held yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock from McCarthy's chapel. There was a large attendance of the friends of the deceased and of his widow. The funeral services, conducted by Rev. Guy W. Wadsworth, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, were deeply impressive. Floral tributes, which were numerous and of rare beauty, attested to the esteem in which the deceased had been held by a wide circle of friends, who had been drawn to him during his five years' residence in Pueblo. Miss Jean Groff sang very sweetly the beautiful old hymns: "Jesus, Lover of My Soul" and "Abide With Me." Many friends went to the place of interment on the family lot at Roselawn cemetery. The pall bearers were G. M. Morris, W. R. Orendorff, J. H. Collins, C. J. Baum, Edwin
