the great length of the bill will run close to midnight. To get good seats secure your tickets in advance and go early. If you want tickets just call "Purple 90" and give your name and address and the tickets will be sent to you.

On Friday afternoon a matinee will be given for the benefit of the children and on Friday night will be the last performance in this city of this wonderful circus. The Bobby Fountain circus in itself is one of the best shows that has ever been brought together. For upwards of a year the jungles of the world have been scoured for the The Elks will make of the Bobby Fountain circus the greatest exhibition that has ever played under canvass in the history of this city and a performance that no one can afford to miss as it will not only be interesting but instructive and a veritable life's education in itself taking one as it will virtually to every point of the globe in showing the men of every nationality and the animals of every clime.

Don't forget the place—Fifth and Court—the time—Thursday night and Friday—and the name the United Elks and Bobby Fountain circus.

Funeral Notices.

The funeral of Mrs. Susie Paddock will be held from the family residence, 2502 Greenwood street, at 2 o'clock this afternoon, and from the First Baptist church at 2:30. Rev. W. T. Campbell will conduct the services. Interment will be at the Odd Fellows cemetery on the North Side.

The funeral of the late Herschel William Batten, the 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Batten will be held this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock from McMahon & Collier's chapel and at 2 o'clock from the First Methodist Episcopal church, South. The services will be conducted by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Buhrman. The interment will be made in the family lot at Roselawn.

The funeral of Giles Donaldson will be held at 2 o'clock this afternoon from the Bethlehem Baptist church. Interment will be in Roselawn.

The funeral of the late William B. Weaver, a pioneer citizen of Pueblo, wil lbe held from the family home, 1428 Bragdon avenue, this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The funeral services which will be held under the auspices of the A. O. U. W. lodge will be conducted by Rev. Gustave A. C. Lehman, rector of St. James' parish. The interment will be made in the family lot at Roselawn.

The funeral of the late Henry J. Marks will be held Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the late residence, 211 Michigan street. Deceased was an honored member of the lodge of the Knights of the Maccabees. The funeral services will be private. Interment will be made in the family lot at Roselawn.

The remains of the late Henry Triefte were forwarded Friday night from the chapel of McMahon & Collier to the old home in Steeleville, Ill., where the interment will be made. The remains were escorted from the mortuary to the Union station by a delegation composed of the members of the Red Men's order of which the deceased had long been a member.

To dress well requires a little forethought. A careful man will not act in a hap-hazardy way and buy a suit the very minute he wants to wear it, but will go to reliable tailors, select the material and order his suit of clothes. We believe that you can do no better than place your order with us. With the immense stock of spring and summer woolens, a select crew of tailors and our large experience, we are in position to attend to your wants properly. Give us a call. TUCHOCK BROS., tailors and Importers, 115 west Third street.

If you want to enjoy the luxury of a first class dinner, well cooked, take your Sunday dinner at the Oriental cafe, 120 west Third street.

THE DUNHAM STUDIO

is now prepared to do all first class work. Special attention given to ladies and children. The only studio in the city having a first class lady

The Pantorium and Model Dye Works