no show at the Grand stand. If it's fair this evening there will be a double bill presented, and every act will be worth the price of admission. However, the price remains the same—10 cents pays to all.

The 'Hoosier City" Quartette club will by special request sing "My Old Kentucky Home," and many other southern melodies. This high-class organization will only appear in Pueblo this week at the Grand stand.

Sam Green, who scored such a pronounced hit the first night and was made to come back several times, will be seen in a new role tonight.

Miss Summers will render several entirely new ballads, and every one is a gem. Baby Marguerite will be seen as the bootblack.

To get a seat it will be necessary to come early. Gates open at 7:30.

EXPERIENCE.

To fit glasses successfully it is necessary to have years of experience in the different branches of the business. I have had seventeen years experience in fitting, adjusting and manufacturing. I have every instrument of value for the fitting of the eyes accurately. This is not all, I know how to use these instruments so that the patient receives the full benefit for which they were intended. Every instrument I use is of value to the patient—not to impress them with what I
