MRS. J. M. BEATY, PIONEER OF ARKANSAS VALLEY, PASSES AWAY

Formerly a Resident of Manzanola—Death Comes While in Colorado Springs

Special to The Chieftain.

Manzanola, Dec. 19.—Mrs. J. M. Beaty, formerly a resident of this city but for the past ten years a resident of Colorado Springs, died at the Beaty home in Colorado Springs today. The body will be brought to this place for interment and the funeral will be held from the Christian church in Manzanola tomorrow afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. Rev. Mr. Walthall, pastor of the church, will deliver the funeral sermon.

Mrs. Beaty was the wife of J. M. Beaty, president of the Manzanola State bank and president of the Beaty Mercantile company of this city. She was a pioneer of this immediate vicinity, having taught school here prior to her marriage and Mr. Beaty was one of the business men of Manzanola at the time their families coming here in 1864. Since her marriage she has resided in Manzanola except for the past ten years, the family having moved to Colorado Springs where their two children, Robert and Ruth, could be given the benefit of the schools and colleges of that place.

The Beatys are among the best known families in the Arkansas valley, Mr. Beaty being interested in business in a number of the towns in this section of the state and a property owner in Colorado Springs and Pueblo as well as one of the largest owners of agricultural ranch property in the state.

Rocky Ford, Dec. 19.—Word was received here today of the death of Mrs. J. M. Beaty whose death occurred at Colorado Springs yesterday. The Beatys are among the pioneer settlers of the Arkansas valley and many friends of the family will attend the funeral which will be held at Manzanola tomorrow afternoon. Mrs. Beaty is a sister of Mrs. John Boman of this city and a cousin of James Bingham also of this city.
