MOTHER PUEBLO MAN DIES IN TRINIDAD

Special to The Chieftain.

Trinidad, June 5.—At the home of her daughter here Mrs. Book Beazley died tonight after an illness of but a few days. Mrs. Beazley was an old settler of this state, coming to Trinidad in 1853, from her home in Lexington, Kentucky. Her son, Fred Beazley, now living at Pueblo, was the third white child to be born in Trinidad. Mrs. Beazley holds the distinction of having the first house in Trinidad to have shingles on the roof. She is survived by one daughter in Trinidad, one in Salt Lake City and two sons, Fred Beazley of Pueblo and J. T. Monroe of Thatcher, Colo.
