phone 424-F.

convenience is best served by ing your Denver tickets via fe.

d. Loor, mortuary parlors, un- ng and embalming. 303 Main Phone 135. Residence phone 434.

VIL'S AUTION TONIGHT.

g the vaudeville and other spe- atures engaged by Charles H. or the twenty-first edition of verlasting Devil's Auction" are La Tour and Zaza, a most novel nance, and DeWit and Burns, acrobats and equilibrists. Both acts have been brought from by Manager Yale, and are y endorsed as London and con- l hits. Other features are offer- Morton and Van Allen electrical l grotesques, and a new novelty d "The Dance to the Moon." At and tonight.

RE THE FIRST TO ANNOUNCE IT

February 15th and for some time fter the popular Colorado & ern will make rate of $25 to Cali- points, $25 to points in Oregon Vashington, $20 to points in Ida- ontana and Eastern Oregon. Call r city ticket office, cor. 3rd and Sts. for further information.

DENVER & RIO GRANDE R. R.

Trains leaving Pueblo at 11:50 a. m. has through chair car to Portland every day. Only one change to Pendleton, Seattle and Tacoma and other North- west cost points. Call at office in Central block for particulars.

"Ask Drew, the Colorado & Southern man about it."

DIED

CONVERY—Friday, February 27, 1903, Mrs Jane Convery, aged 72 years.

Funeral from the home of cousin, Mrs. William Ather, 313½ south Main street at 9:30, and from St. Patrick's church at 10 o'clock Monday.

MANIGHIU—Friday, February 27, 1903, Michael Manighiu, aged 35 years.

Funeral from McMahon & Collier's at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

BERGER—Friday, February 27, 1903, Frank Berger, aged 40 years.

Funeral announcement later.

RUDD—Friday, February 27, 1903, Larned E., six-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Sanford M. Rudd.

Funeral from residence, 1106 Clare- mont avenue at 1 o'clock Sunday af- ternoon. Joliet, Ill., papers please copy.

CHAS. OTERO J

615 North Main

Pueblo, Colo.

THOMAS
Car
Pai
First Cla
'Phone 7
31

VIRGINIA AMO
Doctor of Osteopa
New Leibhardt Block, 5th
Graduate of both the Fran and Kirksville, Mo., schoo given special study to th
of women and children.