MIKE, THE DUCK

"Well we're going to have all the painters and decorators of the state with us next week in convention," remarked Mike the Duck last night.

"In turning the keys of the city over to the painters, Mayor Donnelly will really be giving them permission to paint the town red or any other bright color.

"Its been rather quiet around the old town for a few weeks and the painters will really start things. Then there will be the primaries and county assemblies of both the Democrats and Republicans while the Wampus party will also try to kick up some dust. And before we know it we will be in the midst of a redhot presidential cam-
