MIKE, THE DUCK

"If all these crop reports I hear are true," remarked Mike the Duck last night, "Colorado, and Pueblo in particular, will enjoy some of the finest prosperity this fall in history, despite a many-sided political campaign.

"The farmers under the ditches are breaking all records and dry farmers declare that they are outstepping the irrigation people with good crops.

"And in the meantime Pueblo is building to beat the band in every part of town, and it is generally believed that the building has just commenced. The only trouble now is that it is so doggoned hot that we don't notice the prosperity and don't care much whether or not it is here.

"I notice the Leader offers a hundred for the Wilson campaign. It is rumored that the generous offer was the result of a typographical error, the printer neglecting to put a period after the '1.'

"Well, I saw the pictures today and am of the opnion that had the battle gone to the finish that the title might now be in Sunville.

"Sunshine."
