ons

lars, either
thful faces
g a blouse
ecru lace.
lace. The coming to d with the

Bu
In
P

These ar
imperfection
long time in
look all righ
from fine co
pair, 19c.

A

These are ribbed. Good
10c. Come

Ants Pr
Fall

Although this when open-air
posed to have th
Order of Ants h
and enthusiastic
of the Commerce
the meeting it w organizer around
state in order t Ant hill in every southern Colorad
After the init
which some twen
given their ante
into the world to
sas valley, a b
held. Secretary
that he had rec
asking for inform new institution
along the line.
A press committ
the purpose part literature showin
jects of the Indu
and to start on a
boost for boosters
harvested and pe overn, while the following members of the police force acted as flower bearers: John Connors, Charles Baty, Max Stein, George Herendeen, Joseph Winterbottom, John Yatsko. The funeral arrangements were in charge of T. G. McCarthy.

Pioneer Lady Passes Away

Mrs. Fannie E. Brooks for thirty-nine years a resident of Pueblo, died yesterday evening shortly after 8 o'clock at her late residence, 2427 Court street.

Mrs. Brooks first came to Pueblo from Missouri in 1873 and ever since that time has made this city her home, becoming known and loved by thousands of friends. At the bedside when she breathed her last were all the members of her family who had gathered here when she first became ill and who have remained constantly with her to the end.

The deceased is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Anna B. Ackley and Miss Cathryn Brooks, both of Pueblo, one sister, Mrs. Eddie Y. Ellis of Columbia, Missouri, and a brother, B. J. Mustain, besides two grand children, Mathew B. and Lucille Hamlin.

The funeral will be held from her late residence, 2427 Court street at 10 a. m. Sunday. Interment will be in the family lot in Turkey Creek cemetery. Davis and Vories have charge of the funeral arrangements.

Puebloans Marry in San Francisco

News reached Pueblo yesterday from Salt Lake that J. W. Thomas and Miss Mary McCormick were married in San Francisco on July 31 and that after a short honeymoon spent in Salt Lake city will reach Pueblo within the next few days to make this city their future home. Mrs. Thomas is well known in local society circles, having lived in Pueblo for a great many years, leaving here some three years ago to take up her residence in San Francisco. Mr. Thomas is well known in local business circles as the president and manager of the Eloma Manufacturing company.

RECORD OF A GREAT MEDICINE