Walter N. Procter, a

Every booster in the city of Pueblo as well as every member of the new Pueblo Commerce club should attend the mass meeting in the rotunda of the Central block tonight.

The meeting is the first of the new club and the success of the organization depends much on the outcome of tonight's meeting when the directors of the club will be elected.

Every member of the club should turn out for the meeting.

County Pioneer Passes Away

J. W. Brooks, one of Pueblo county's earliest settlers, died at the home of his son, J. C. Brooks, 122 east Evans avenue, yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Brooks came to Pueblo county in 1872 and settled near what is now known as Swallows. He devoted most of his time to ranching and settled on the piece of ground he left but a few weeks ago when he came to the city to stay with his son.

Mr. Brooks was 72 years of age. He was well known throughout the county and had many friends in Trinidad, Colorado Springs and Denver, as well as Pueblo.

He is survived by two sons, J. C. Brooks and John S. Brooks, both of this city, and a brother, J. G. Brooks of Fairplay, Colo.

The remains are at Davis & Vories' and the funeral arrangements will be completed as soon as the brother of the deceased in Fairplay is communicated with.

NOTICE!

Y. M. C. A. SUBSCRIBERS.

Call is hereby made for payment of second one-fourth on Y. M. C. A. subscriptions on May 10th.

About fifteen thousand dollars has been paid in on the first call, and paid from all sections of the city. While this is most encouraging and our colelctor is visiting all as rapidly as possible, it will be seen that quite a number have not yet paid. Will all such kindly make both payments May 10th. Pay at any of the banks, or at Gavin & Hanger, H. Z. Price, S. F. Crawford & Co., Crews-Beggs Dry Goods Co., or E. I. Crockett & Co.
