which 35 persons had been won to Christ in the house, in the class and elsewhere.

These excellent features extended into the Wednesday evening meeting when after Mr. Corsan's stirring sermon on 'Knocking at the door' nineteen more came marching down to the altar. These services this week have certainly caught fire. Many causes have contributed to this end. The sermons have been masterful and of intense interest. The songs under the leadership of Dr. Casset are inspiring to a remarkable degree. The organization and personal work of the pastor and the earnest work of the people have contributed largely to the results. Mr. Corson's subject will be "Halting Between two Opinions."

Brooks Funeral

The funeral of John W. Brooks, the Pueblo county pioneer who died at his home in Swallows, Colo., was held yesterday afternoon from the Broadway Christian church. The service was made beautiful by the rendition of "Abide with Me," and "Lead Kindly Light," by Mrs. Neugebauer. After the service the remains were taken to Swallows where interment was made in the family cemetery.

The pall bearers were G. L. L. Gann, W. R. Hamlin, H. R. Steele, W. H. Hyde, Frank Prather and Fields McMillen.

The flower bearers were Charles Henkel and Samuel Abbey.

Many beautiful floral offerings were made.
