W. O. W. Excursion to Canon City This Morning

The largest excursion of the season so far will be that of the Woodmen of the World which leaves at 9 o'clock this morning for Canon City.

Beside the members of the lodge who will go to Canon City to attend their eighteenth annual convention of the district the trip will be made by many who will go to see the scenic beauties of the country adjacent to Canon City.

The train which will take the excursionists will be the biggest excursion train that has left Pueblo this year.

It is to be run over the Denver and Rio Grande and will be composed of as many cars as are necessary to seat the excursionists.

The train will return at 10 o'clock tonight but excursion tickets are good on any returning train on the regular schedule.

Funeral Notices.

The remains of James L. Blunt were shipped last evening to Kewanee, Ill., by McCarthy, accompanied by Bert H. Wilkinson.

The funeral of W. C. Brooks, who has lived at Swallows since coming to Pueblo county in 1872, will be held from the Broadway Christian church this morning at 9:00 o'clock. The interment will be in the Farmers' cemetery at Taylor by carriage. The services will be in charge of the Rev. Mr. Buxton. The members of the Southern Colorado Pioneers' association and the friends of the deceased are invited to attend.
