FUNERAL NOTICES.

All that was mortal of the late Mrs. T. T. Vaughan was laid to rest yesterday morning in Riverview cemetery, attended by a large concourse of sorrowing friends. Services were held at the home of the deceased's daughter Mrs. W. F. Greer at 201 Orman avenue. Many beautiful floral offerings were banked about the casket, lending their sweet fragrance to the impressive devotional exercises conducted by Rev. E. P. Newton. Mrs. J. D. Kellogg sang two appropriate solos during the services. The pallbearers were George E. Bragdon, J. G. Chapman, George McCord, F. H. Frankenburg, B. Sweet, T. H. Devine, J. M. Gray and Dr. A. T. King. The flower bearers were Alva Adams, Will Unfug, Don Thompson, O. W. Mallaby, Frank Vance and Harry Blunt.

Rev. L. J. Marshall pastor of the Central Christian church officiated at the funeral of Mrs. Julia A. Brooks which took place from 2427 Court street yesterday at 9:30 a. m. The interment was at the home cemetery and there Rev. R. A. N. Wilson conducted the services. Many friends of the family were present and the floral offerings were profuse. George Harpster, W. F. Boob, E. R. Chew, William Jahns, W. D. Hamlin and C. R. Griffin were the pallbearers.

The funeral of John Siska will be held this morning at 9:30 at the undertaking rooms in the Board of Trade building, and 10 o'clock from St. Mary's church.

The remains of S. A. Crouch will reach the city today at 1:30 from Florence and interment will follow immediately in Mountain View cemetery.

The funeral of Dennis Murphy, who died Sunday, will take place from 112 north Main street today at 10 a. m. The interment will be at Riverview.
