easurer has all
in his office.

INST BOYS

re commenced
terday against
and Harold
public schools
alleged, "hab-
e streets and
hool hours."
the Brennan
in the court
failed to com-
l even though
h such notice
officer.

IUED.

against Chas.
tter was con-
ourt
were allowed
recognizance.
e larceny of

ant, charged
ontinued for

AME.

lent and Ed-
. yesterday
ncorporation
ar company,
ame to the
turing com-

LS.

ommissioners
work. A wed in the

LL.

Joe Griffin
Griffin was

MANUFACTURING OPTICIAN,

312 North Main St., Pueblo, Colo.

DIED.

CLANCEY.—Sunday, February 2, 1902, in this city, John Clancey, aged 55 years.

Funeral announcement later.

SISKA.—Sunday, February 2, 1902, in this city, John Siska, aged 35 years.

Funeral announcement later.

LEE.—Monday, February 3, 1902, in this city, Clarence Lee, aged 43 years.

Funeral announcement later.

BROOKS.—Monday, February 3, 1902, at the family home, 2437 Court street, Miss Julia A. Brooks, aged 63 years.

Funeral announcement later.

ATKINSON.—Monday, February 3, 1902, at his late residence, 509 west Sixth street, Thomas J. Atkinson, aged 71 years.

Funeral from the house Wednesday at 2 p. m. Interment at Riverview.

SANDOVAL.—Monday, February 3, 1902, at the family residence in Salt Creek, John, the two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sandoval.

Funeral from the house today at 10 a. m. Interment on the St. Charles.

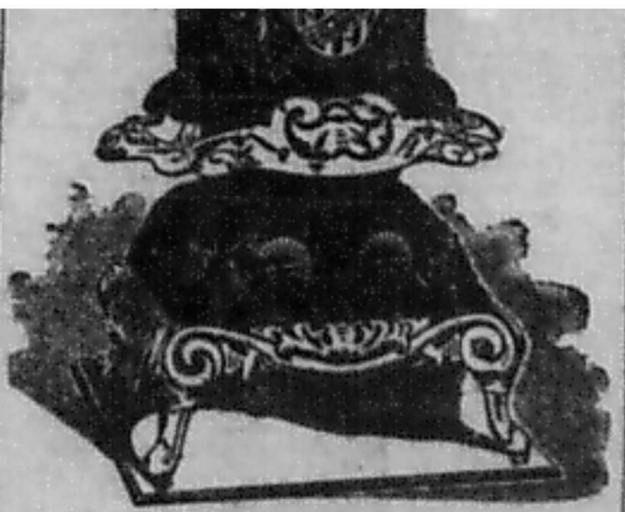

VAUGHAN—Monday, February 3, 1902, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Greer, 201 Orman avenue, Mrs. T. T. Vaughan, aged 67 years.

Funeral Wednesday at 10 a. m. from the residence.

A STEAM LINE TO BESSEMER JUNCTION.

Commencing January 1st, 1902, the Denver & Rio Grande will place on sale a 20 ride ticket Pueblo Union depot to Bessemer Junction, tickets will be sold at a rate of one dollar. A five cent ride—and will be good for 60 days. This for the accommodation of the army of men now employed at the Junction.

ALEX JACKSON.

STOVES.

GET PRICES FROM OTHERS, THEN COME TO US.

John Norris Furniture Comp'y

The Easy Payment House.

Cor. 3rd and Santa Fe Ave.

'Phone 184-B.

May We Be Your Stenographer?

We have competent operators, and can do your work satisfactorily.

GIVE US A CALL.

JESSE R. WOOD

Phone 444A.

312 N. Main St.