sang very beautifully Kipling's "On the road to Mandalay." The chief topic of discussion was the Education and religious work among the Italians." About $200 was subscribed to this mission work by those present.

RABBIT HUNT—Firemen Stewart and Chiariglione of the local fire department returned from Chico yesterday where they succeeded in bagging thirty-four rabbits in one day's hunt. They also succeeded in killing two coyotes.

MEETING POSTPONED — The annual Thank Offering meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary Society of the First Methodist church which was to have been held at the home of Mrs. Charles Ketchum yesterday afternoon, was postponed indefinitely on account of illness in the family.

TRADES ASSEMBLY—The Trades Assembly held its regular meeting last night. No business of any importance was transacted.

CAR DERAILED—A derailed freight car on the Santa Fe right of way, one mile north of the State Insane asylum, delayed traffic in the Santa Fe and Colorado and Southern for several hours yesterday afternoon.

REMARKABLE RECORD — The Rock Island established new punctuality records between Chicago and Pueblo last month, according to reports of the Union depot issued yesterday. No. 5, the two night train pulled into the Pueblo Union depot thirty times during the month exactly on time. Not once was it a minute behind schedule while No. 7, the Rocky Mountain Limited, was late but twice, once two hours, when it collided with a freight train at Fountain in a blinding snow storm and another time ten minutes when the train was slightly delayed at Colorado Springs. The distance is 1,100 miles and the records are considered remarkable. Even during the severe snow storms during the latter part of the month the Rock Island succeeded in making schedule time.

AUXILIARY ELECTION — At a meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen held yesterday, officers for the ensuing year were elected. The following is the list of selections: Councilman, R. T. Angus; mistress, Cora Roller; vice mistress, Emma Brisack; secretary, Ruth Wolter; treasurer, Anna L. Angus; conductress, Minnie Colburn; chaplin, Sarah Newkirk; warden, Elizabeth Leonard; inner guard, Leulla Hunt; outer guard, Agnes O'Brien; physician, Dr. Russel. Mrs. R. T. Angus, wife of Patrolman Angus of the local police department, was elected delegate to the tri-annual convention to be held in Baltimore next October. Mrs. Sarah G. Evans was selected as alternate.

DECEMBER TERM The December term of county court will be convened next Monday. The bar docket which has just been issued shows sixty-seven divorce cases pending. In district court there are about half that many suits for divorce now on the docket.

JUBILEE CONCERT—To help the fund for a new colored orphanage in Pueblo there will be a jubilee concert held on the evening of December 15 in the First Methodist church. A most entertaining programme has been arranged. Some of the most clever of the colored people of Pueblo and Bessemer will give jubilee songs, sketches, original wit, and instrumental melodies both old and new. A large attendance is expected at this concert on account of the worthy cause.

FIVE FINE RECRUITS—The five fine young men who successfully passed the examinations for enlistment in Uncle Sam's navy at the navy recruiting station in the Federal building yesterday morning were declared worth, Kas., R. A. Nott of Detroit, Mich., and Homer Richardson of Powers, Colo.

WONDERFUL WIRELESS TELEGRAPH

Financial Investigation, Undertaken in the Interest of Inquiring Subscribers, Reveals Marvelous Progress—A Purchase of United Wireless Telegraph Company's Stock, Undoubtedly Offers Greater Future Profit Than Any Other Investment Now Before the Public.

During the past thirty days this publication has received quite a number of inquiries from its readers, asking our opinion regarding an investment in "United Wireless." Not being sufficiently conversant with the subject to intelligently advise our correspondents, and following our invariable rule of instituting a thorough investigation before condemning or recommending an enterprise, the editor of the Mercantile and Financial Times called at the general offices of the United Wireless Telegraph company at 42 Broadway, New York City.
